Safe Grow Zone Education Campaign Presents:

Fall Lawn Renovations, Naturally: Everything
You Need to Know for a Safe,
Organic Landscape With Paul Tukey!

When & Where:

Saturday, October 5th, 2013, 10:00 am to 12:00 pm
Department of Public Works
31 Oswego Avenue, Silver Spring, MD, 20910

Paul Tukey is a journalist, author, filmmaker, TV host, consultant & motivational public speaker, who is internationally recognized for his expertise in environmental issues related to landscape management and water quality. Mr. Tukey is lauded for his ability to turn a mundane subject - lawn care - into a rousing public discourse.

Currently, Mr. Tukey is Chief Sustainability Officer for Glenstone, a museum in Potomac, Maryland, where he will help create a "living classroom" about organic landscaping.
