Sport(1) _____

I understand the Summerville Union High School District may or may not be providing transportation to or from the above activity. However, my child will not avail himself/herself of the transportation provided by the Summerville Union High School District and has my permission to drive his/her own vehicle to practice and/or home games when the facility is located away from the main Summerville High Campus. This permission is given only for the above named sport.

Summerville UHSD students are NOT allowed to transport other students to or from any school activity or excursion. By failing to comply with this policy the parents or guardians are releasing Summerville UHSD of all liabilities associated with this form of voluntary transportation. I understand as the parent or guardian that I am assuming responsibility if my provides transportation for another SUHSD student which is against SUHSD policy.

In addition, if my son son/daughter does transport any passengers, this permission slip will be voided immediately.

I understand that pursuant to Education Code Section 44808, the District is not responsible for the conduct or safety of my child when he/she is not under the immediate and direct supervision of an employee of the Summerville Union High School District.
