

“The Quantum Intention Accelerator”

Usage Instructions

The Recording...

There are those in this world who are known simply as “Intention Masters”. These are people who seem to be amazingly good at manifesting their intentions.

An interesting aspect that is common to all of these people is that when their brains are monitored during an intention exercise, they all seem to go into a similar brainwave state.

“The Quantum Intention Accelerator” has been specifically designed to take you into the very same brain state as the intention masters themselves... Simply by listening to it.

When “The Quantum Intention Accelerator” is combined with the process printed below the results can be truly awe inspiring.

Using this recording is simplicity itself...

Once you have formulated your intention and just before you lay down with headphones and your eyes closed to listen to “The Quantum Intention Accelerator”, simply write your intention and “finisher” down on a piece of paper as directed below.

As you start the recording, read your intention and the “finisher” aloud then close your eyes and begin to pay attention to the sculpted tones.

The tones will not only put you into the same state as the “intention masters” but will also help with one of the hardest aspects of proper intending... “Letting Go”...

With respect to the 2 versions of the quantum intention accelerator...

They are the same frequency but use a slightly different stimulation pattern as well as tonal pitch.

It does not matter which one you listen to. simply choose the one that feels or sounds best to you. This will be the one that should work better in your case.

The Explanation and Exercises...

In order to manifest your intentions, you must first ask for them.

When you ask for them you must be very clear and specific as to what you are asking for.

We all have over 60,000 thoughts every day and many of these thoughts are in conflict with each other.

Which ones are the ones that you wish to manifest?

Imagine you have a thought of going to London, but at the same time you have another thought of going to New York. Which one should the universe fulfill for you?

The truth is that there is no way it can fulfill either, as they are in conflict with each other as you cannot be in 2 places at once.

You must understand that focusing your intention is the most important step and here is how to do it...

Be crystal clear as to what you intend and your intention will help to broaden your perspective, lift your emotions, lead you into taking action, help you build momentum, and make your life easier.

Every morning when you wake up and every night before you sleep, write down your intention.

Here is an example of what a properly written intention should look like...

"I intend to (fill in with your intention) now. I accept this or something better"

For example, if your intention is to have a new BMW (automobile), your intention statement should look something like...

"I intend to manifest a new BMW automobile now. I accept this or something better."

I suggest that you keep this word/sentence structure, as this particular format and choice of words is very powerful.

After writing down your intention statement, write these words (also known as the "finisher")...

"Please make this or something better happen in a way that is for the highest good of me and of all concerned. Thank You, Thank You, Thank You."

Write it exactly as it is written above, do not edit, or otherwise change the wording in any way as this particular wording is very powerful and will make it far more likely that you will manifest your desired results over time and practice.

Extra Help...

There are a couple of things that you can do to help solidify the whole process and literally assure its success...

Get an envelope or small box, and put it in a private place where only you can access it.

Write your intention on a piece of paper, and put it inside. This is where you will place your written intentions and thus make "official" your deal with your higher self and the universe in order to assure your intentions manifestation.

When you pay attention to your own life and the joys inherent within it, you are literally telling the universe that you do not need to try to succeed, and that success is as natural as breathing.

Instead of putting off your happiness until you have reached your goal and achieved your intention, allow yourself to be happy now with each small step you make forward and really see how far you have come with your intention as your fuel.

The energy you get from this will have a positive impact on everything and everyone you come into contact with.

Make a list of activities, people and things you enjoy. Activities that bring you joy and energy.

The simple act of writing and then reading and re-reading your “list of joy” will help you to embed your new “focus of intention” into your brain and memory. This in turn will help you to work in harmony with all around you and will also be a great help to you in establishing a new and positive awareness of your life.

When you make yourself aware of the activities, people, and things that you enjoy, you cannot help but realize that you are already well on your way to living the life of your dreams.

Remind yourself to ask this question many times throughout the day...

Is this thought I am having, or this action I am taking, in alignment with my intention?

If the answer is yes, you are on the right track.

If the answer is no...

Then you can simply make a conscious effort to direct your attention to another thought or action that is in alignment and “feels right” for you.

By using these techniques in association with “The Quantum Intention Accelerator”, you will be able to communicate your intention to the universe successfully and will be able to manifest it as you have never been able to before.

A final thought...

“A dream, a desire, indeed an intention is nothing more than a representation of a possible reality, and what you dream of now, what you desire now, indeed what your reality is now, is nothing more than the manifestation of your current intention”
