Combining triangles and rectangles, this block pattern consists of a square on point that has been cut into three bars. Adjusting the colors can even make it look like the eye of a needle.

This is a popular block for boys’ quilts.