Similar to the Churn Dash (four side squares cut horizontally), this block adds a twist—literally. Each of the corner squares contains a smaller square twisted on point. If you place your colors properly, it creates a circle (or a “stone”). And, as the old saying goes, “a rolling stone gathers no moss.”