

NOMINATION FORM

T·H·E
BAUR
AWARD

The Baur Award recognizes a volunteer or employee of Union Health, or a member of the Board of Directors of Union Hospital, Union Hospital Clinton, Union Medical Group, Union Health Foundation or Visiting Nurses Association of the Wabash Valley. It is given in recognition of outstanding contributions to the care of patients and advancement of healthcare at Union Health.

The award is named in memory of Sister Johanna M. Baur who served as the first head nurse and first superintendent of Union Hospital from 1896 to 1902. She was responsible for developing a capable and well-trained nursing staff by establishing the Union Hospital School of Nursing. The Baur Award was created to honor her enterprising spirit and recognize those who continue the work which she began.

The selection of recipients of the award is based on the following criteria:

The recipient will have provided outstanding service to the Union Health as evidenced by:

- Contribution of time and expertise to improve patient care or other aspects of service to the community.
- Contributions to and leadership of the establishment of new programs or services.
- Contributions to and leadership of the ongoing operations and management.
