Awards

Marguerite Parisi, M.D., MS Ed.

Meg Parisi was awarded the Conway-Treves Senior Investigator Award at the 2019 Annual meeting.

Meg has dedicated her career to education in pediatric nuclear medicine and radiology and has over 100 publications. Among her most notable contributions to the PIC is her leadership in dose reduction optimization in collaboration with the Image Gently Alliance and in her frequent participation in “Read with the Experts” during the SNMMI annual meetings.

Sheung Chee Thomas Ng, M.D., Ph.D.

Thomas is the winner of the 2020 Majd-Gilday Young Investigator Award which recognizes outstanding research in pediatric nuclear medicine. The award winning abstract is entitled “Assessment of nonstandard cheese-based meals as viable alternatives to the standard adult meal for pediatric gastric emptying scintigraphy.”

Congratulations!!
