DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT

I enjoyed seeing what other people are doing. It sparked new ideas, validated existing ones, & resulted in serendipitous connections. Chief Data Scientist, Talla

I had the opportunity to meet with the head of a prominent VC firm and found out about startups that would like me to be their technical advisor. I was able to bring my research to a wider audience. Great event! Ian Goodfellow, Google Brain

Extremely well organised & intellectually stimulating event, with excellent speakers, audience interaction, and participation. Professor, Cornell University

Best summit I have ever attended. ...It is a MUST if you want to know what is going to happen in the deep learning field." CEO, MedicSen
