Plot Summary

While looking in the mirror, Nell the Bird asks herself who she is. She finds a scarf and hat, puts them on and is pleased. She thinks she is so beautiful that she wants to show herself off. She's looking in the mirror and doesn't look where she's going. She runs right into the water and then has to admit that she looks a mess.

Story Questions (Comprehension)

1. page 3: Who is Nell talking to in the mirror?
2. page 8: What has Nell put on?
3. page 9: What does Nell do to have fun?
4. page 12: What happens to Nell as she is running?
5. page 14: What does Nell look like when she comes out of the water?

Each new word throughout the program is repeated at least five times in the book in which it first appears and five more times in the next ten books.

In 1972, the federally funded Southwest Regional Laboratory for Educational Development & Research and Ginn and Company published The Sam Books of early readers as part of a Beginning Reading Program. Because it was federally funded, federal law required the program be placed in the public domain in 1977.
