Plot Summary

Sam, the camp leader, got everyone to take part in his fitness program. First a long jog up a hill, then a sack jump race. At the end, Kit noticed Mit was missing, and formed a search party to look for him. They eventually found him asleep, in his sack, under a tree.

Story Questions (Comprehension)

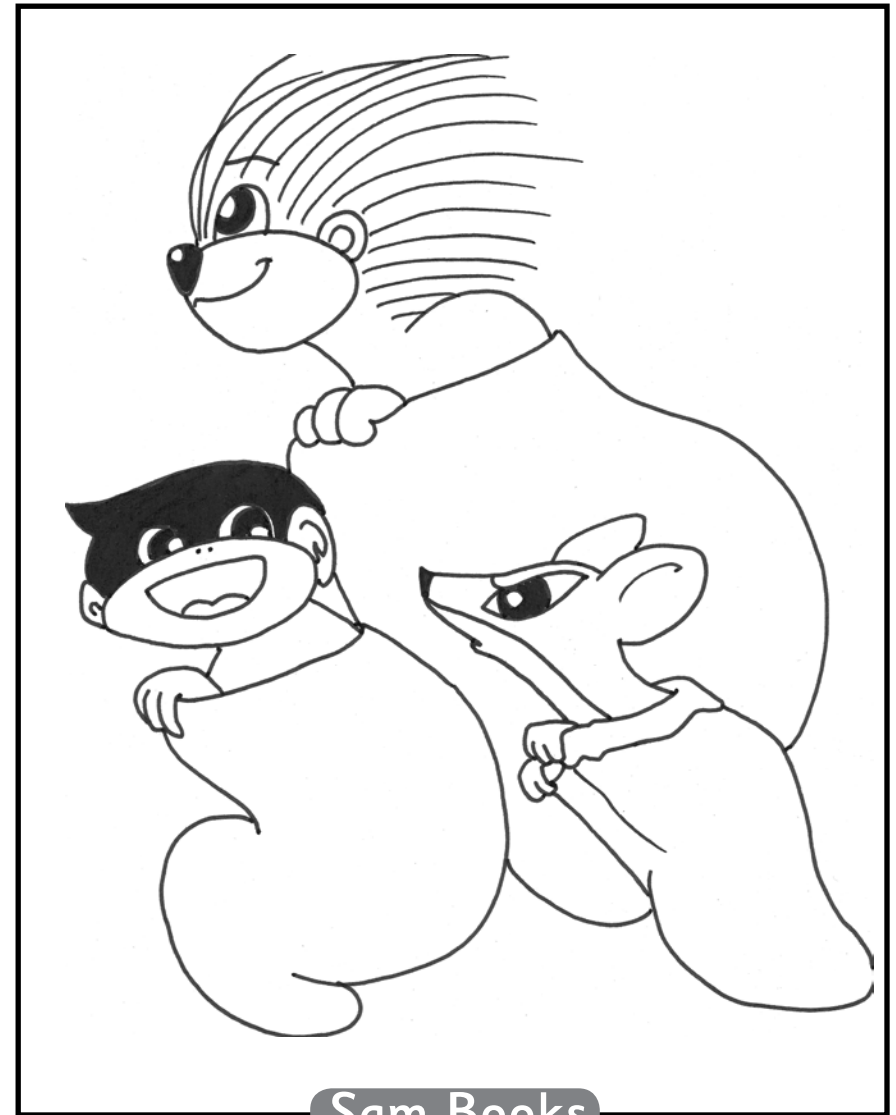

1. page 1: Why does Sam ask his friends to go jogging?
2. page 4: Why do they not jog as fast back to the camp?
3. page 7: How many friends are in the sack jump race?
4. page 14: What is Mit doing under the trees?
5. page 10: Where does Mit drop his hat?

Each new word throughout the program is repeated at least five times in the book in which it first appears and five more times in the next ten books.

“We lost Mit, we need help,” says Kit.
 They go back to camp.
 They do not see Mit at the camp.

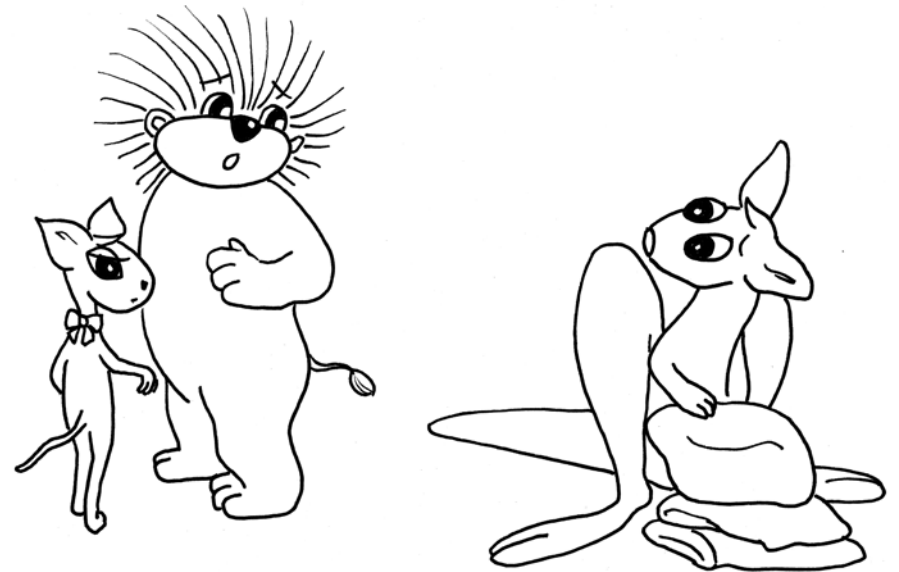

Then they all run up the path.
They do not see Mit on the path.

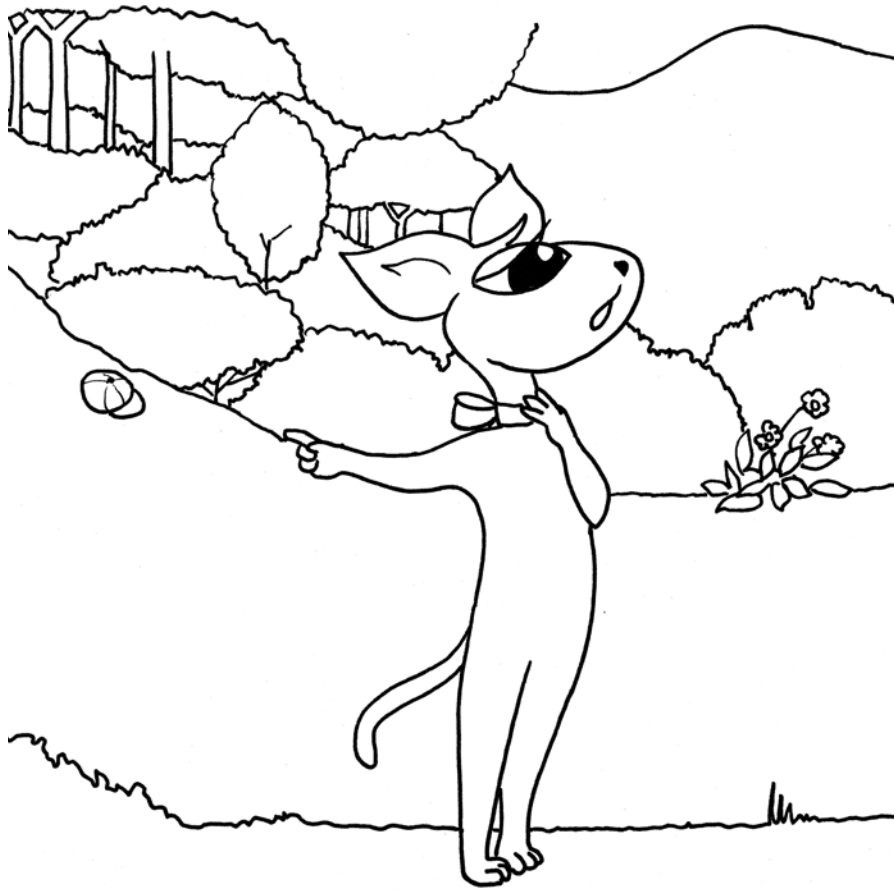

“We will jog and jump.
It will be fun.
Then we will all be fit and well.”

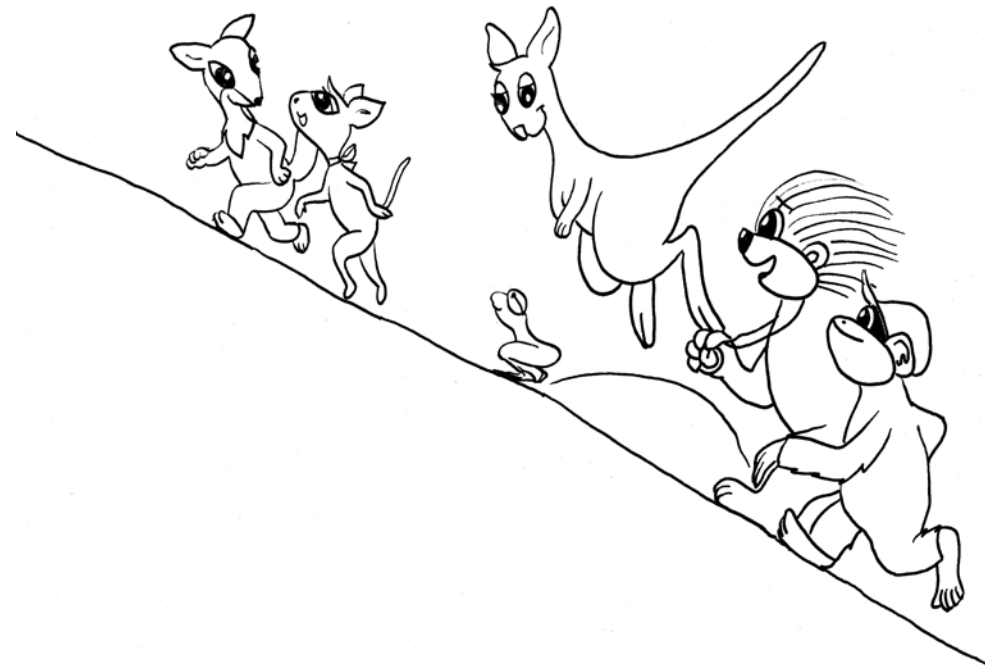

“This is a big path.
We will jog on it.
We can not get lost on this path.”

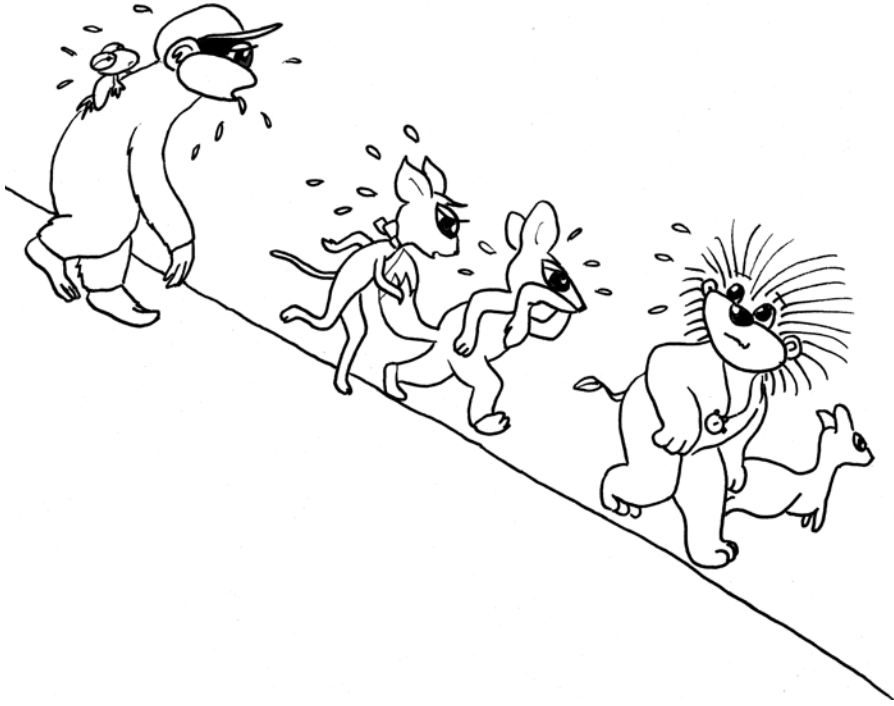

“Mit is lost up the path.
We need to help him,” says Sam.

“I can not see Mit.
I see his hat on the path.”

“Let us all jog up the path.
It will be fun.”
They jog up the hill very fast.

They do not jog as fast back to the camp.

“I win! I win!” Says Nat.
Nat wins the sack jump.
He gets the cup.

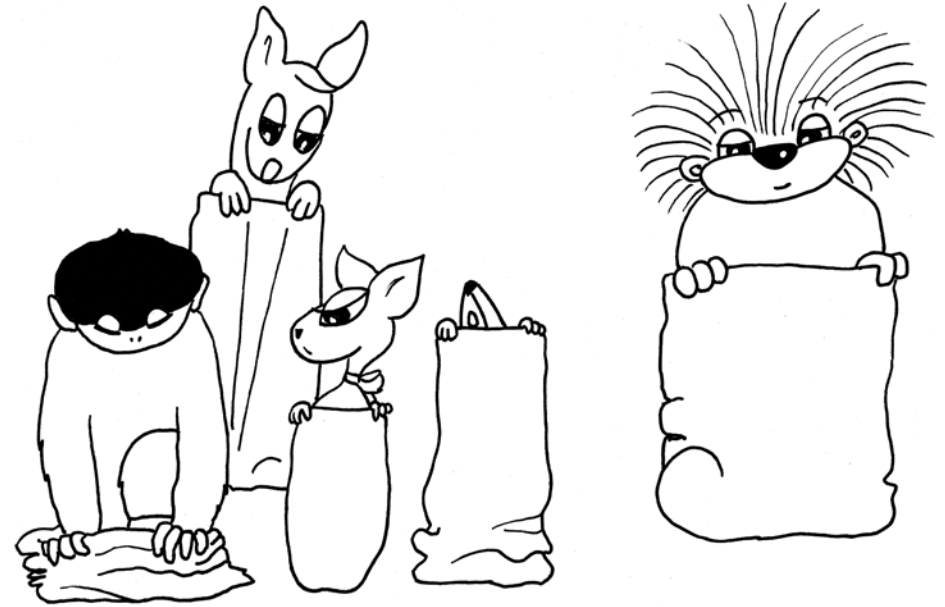

Then they jump to Pip.
Nat can jump very fast in his sack.

“Mit will get five sacks.
Then we will jump in the sacks.
We need to be fit.”

“I can win if I jump as fast as I can.
I need to jump to Pip to win,”
says Max.

Then they get into the sacks.
Max the Fox has the sack up to his chin.
