

Ed and the Sheet

Book 28: Ed and the Sheet

New Words

fill, sheet, shut - decodable

Plot Summary

Ed and Baby make a net and a sheet into a tent. They fill the tent with toys and food. The other animals bring more food and want to crowd into the tent. Ed tries to shut the tent but it collapses. Baby Bear, Mat, Nan, and Mit pick up the food and continue the picnic. Ed uses the net and sheet to take a nap.

Each new word throughout the program is repeated at least five times in the book in which it first appears and five more times in the next ten books.

In 1972, the federally funded Southwest Regional Laboratory for Educational Development & Research and Ginn and Company published The Sam Books of early readers as part of a Beginning Reading Program. Because it was federally funded, federal law required the program be placed in the public domain in 1977.
