Sam Books

Book 70

(TLC 90)

“What is that, high in the sky?
Is it Nan? She can fly high.”

“No, it is not Nan.
Nan is in that tree.”

“It’s Sam. Sam is in his plane.
Sam can fly very high in his plane.”

Sam sets his plane on the sand.
Then they all run to see Sam.

“Can I go in Sam’s plane?
I wish to fly high in the sky with Sam.”

“Mat needs to tie this under his chin.
He needs this hat to fly in my plane.”

“Check Sam and Mat in the plane.
They fly high in the sky.”

“What is that in the sky?
It is as high as the plane.”

“That is Max’s kite.
His kite cannot fly as high as my plane.”

“I let it fly in the sky,” says Mat.
“Mat, do not tie that on the plane!”
Says Sam.

“No! I let it tie up with the kite!”

“We need to go back.
The kite is a mess.”

“Why did Mat tie that on the plane?
My kite is a mess,” says Max.
“It was bad to tie it on the plane,”
says Sam.

“I am sad that the kite is a mess.
Max can get all my fig jam.”
