Book 78

(TLC 94)

Today, Mat, Nat, Max and Mit are in the park. They play ball.

Kit is there too.
She lays under a tree with a book.

“There’s the bell.
Look, the man will shut the park.
We need to go.”

“We can play there.
We can hit the small balls at the wall.”

“No! I am shut in the park.
I do not like this.
Help, where are you all?”

“Kit is shut in the park.
We need to help her.”

“Look! There is a small hole in the wall.”

“No, that hole is too small.”

“Mit, can you get up the wall?”

“No, the wall is too tall.”

“Who can help? Who is tall?”

“Ann is very tall.
She is as tall as the wall. She can use this rope to get Kit up the wall.”

“I will go to the zoo.
It is not too far.
I will ask Ann to help.”

“Ann, can you help Kit?
We are all too small. You are very tall.”

Ann can see Kit in the park.
She looks very small.
“Kit, tie the rope on you.”

They all help Kit get up the wall.

“You did well Ann. You are very tall.
They are small but they help me too.”
