Where is Phil?

Sam Books

Book 90

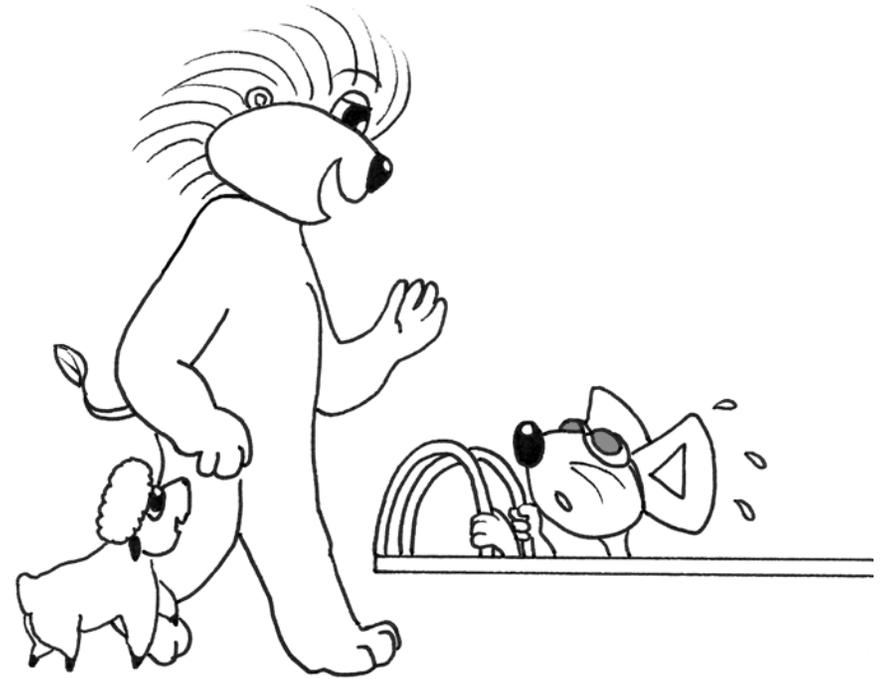

“What is that in your book, Sam?”

“This is a giraffe.”

“Where can I see a giraffe?” Says Phil.

“You can see a giraffe in the city zoo.”

“We will go to the zoo today,” says Sam.

“Why do we need to go to the zoo?”

Says Mat.

“We will take Phil the Lamb to see a giraffe,” says Sam.

“How will we get to the zoo?” Says Phil.

“We will take our bikes.

We will cycle to the city center.”

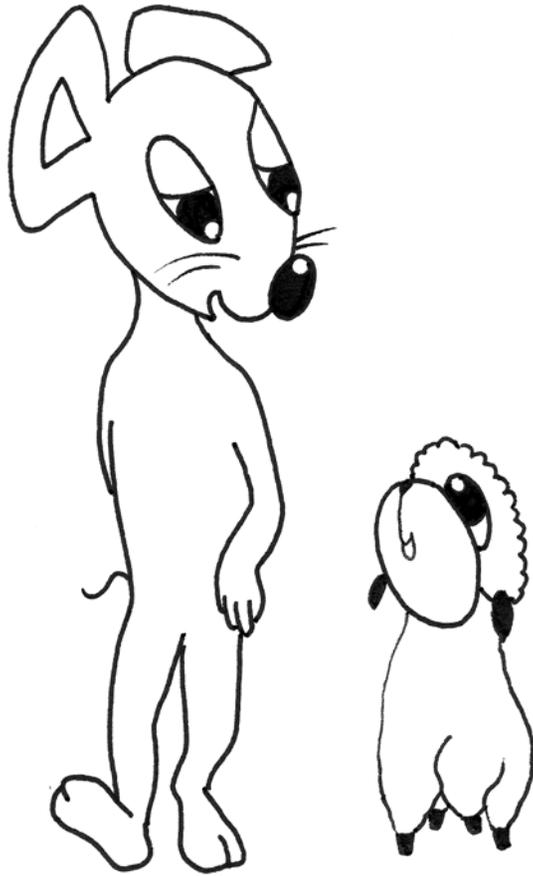

“We can make a wish with a coin.

Take a coin, Phil.”

“Why do we get a wish with a coin?”

“I do not know, but you do,” says Sam.

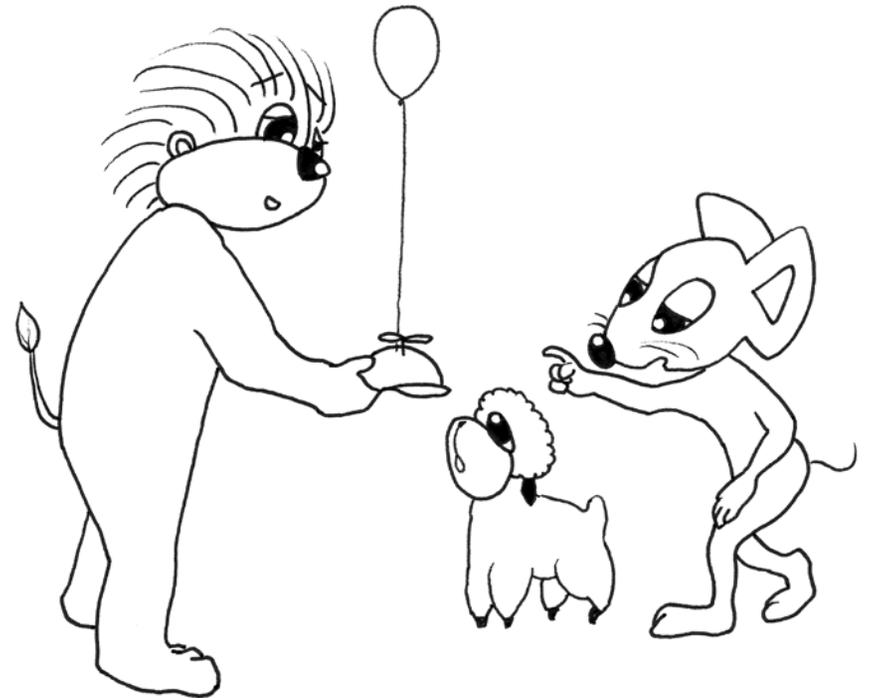

“What was your wish, Phil?”

“I wish to meet a giraffe.

What is your wish?”

“I wish that you do not get lost in the zoo.”

“Phil, fit this hat on your head.”

“Why do I need a hat?” Says Phil.

“We can look for the hat
if you get lost,” says Mat.

“Which way is the giraffe?” Says Phil.

“Look at this sign. It says ‘To the giraffes.’
That sign says ‘To the zebras.’”

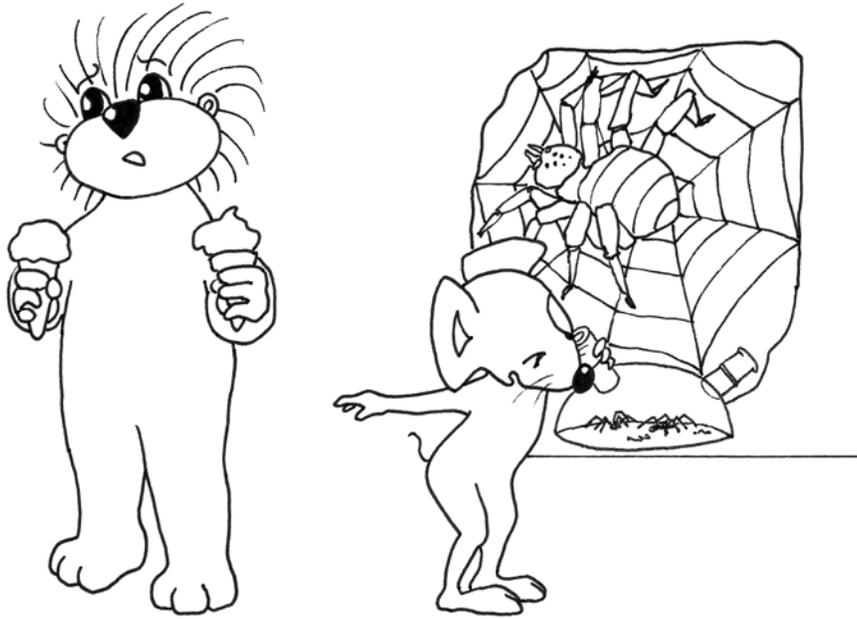

“Which way do we go to see the giant?”

“There is no giant in the zoo,” says Sam.

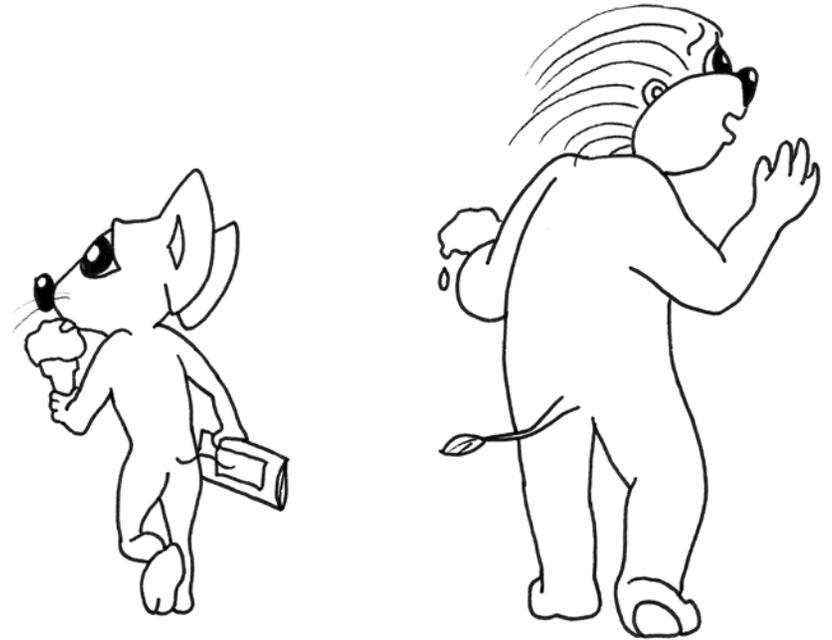

“The book has a giant,” says Phil.

“That’s a giant panda.
The giant panda is that way.”

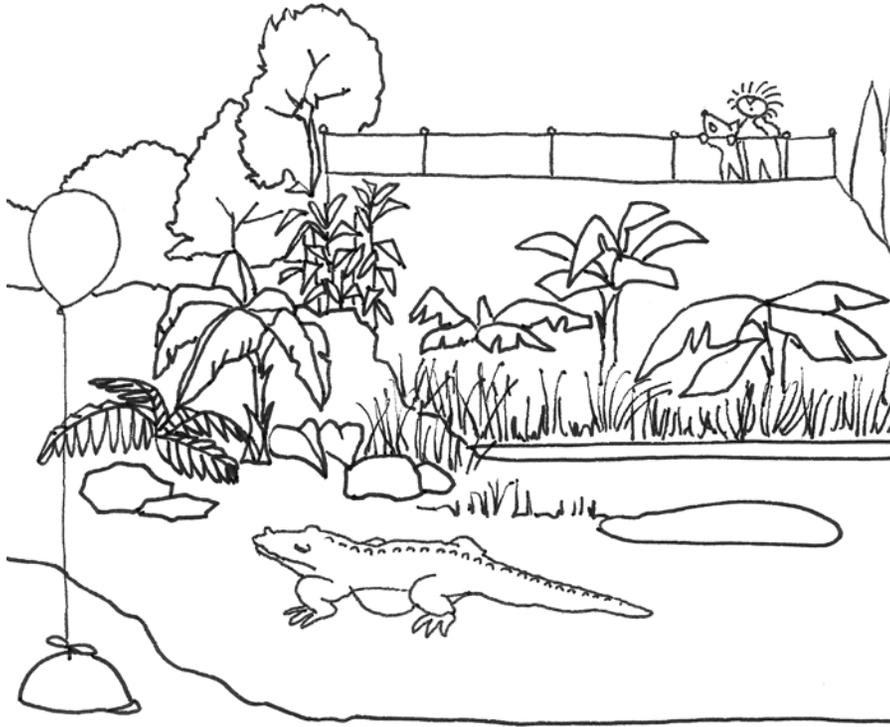

“Where is Phil? I do not see him.
Which way did he go?”

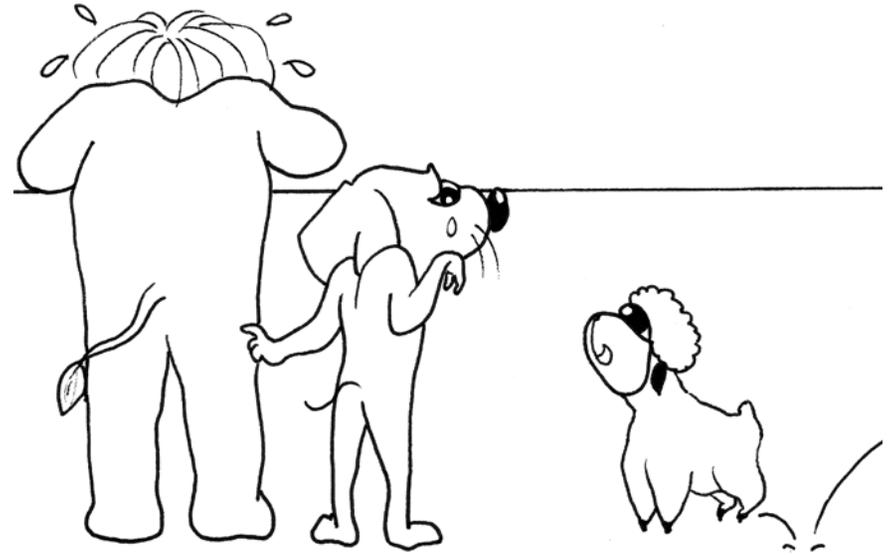

“He ran that way to see the giant panda.”

“Why did you let him go?
He is too small. He will get lost.
Look for his hat. He cannot be too far.”

“No! Look on the far bank. It’s Phil’s hat.
Look at his big stomach!
Phil is in there! What can we do?”

“Why are you sad? I am happy.
I got to see the giant panda.
When will we see the giraffe?”

“Now we are not sad.

We are happy to see you.

How did your hat get in there?”

“It fell from my head.

Then I ran to see the giant panda.”

“Which way do we go now?”

“We go that way to see the giraffe.

That is why we are at the zoo,” says Sam.
