PHONEMIC AWARENESS

- Tell the students they are going to learn the /air/ sound.
- Show students the Sound/Symbol card for “pear.”
- Ask students to name the picture and tell you the vowel sound they hear in the word.
- Turn over the card and point to the letters ea on the card and tell them that the letters e and a together stand for the vowel sound they hear in the word “pear.”

Cards

Print on a thick paper or card. Fold the sheet down the center on the dotted line. Cut the cards into four and glue. For extra durability, you can laminate the cards.

PHONEMIC AWARENESS

- Explain to students that the letter combination “ear” in this word is another of the letter combinations called r-controlled vowel sounds.
- Tell them that there are many letter combinations that represent the /air/ sound.
- Besides ear, other combinations that represent the /air/ sound are air, are. Some examples are “bear,” “hair,” and “care.”

PHONEMIC AWARENESS

- Say aloud the words “scare” and then “scar.” Ask students which word has the same vowel sound as in “pear.”
- Make sure that students can differentiate between the two vowel sounds.
- Point out to students that “scare” has the r-controlled vowel sound /air/ and “scar” has the r-controlled vowel sound /ar/.

PHONEMIC AWARENESS

- Show the Word Card for “fair.”
- Point out the letter combination that represents the /air/ sound. Tell them that the /air/ sound in this word comes at the end of the word.
- Tell them that even though there are four letters in the word “fair,” there are only two sounds which blend to make the word - /f/ /air/
- Repeat the exercise with the rest of the Word Cards. Ask students to blend the sounds to read each of the words.

PHONEMIC AWARENESS

- Tell the students that you are going to say some words that have the /air/ vowel sound and some that do not.
- Ask them to clap once and say /air/ when they hear the r-controlled vowel sound in the word.
- Here are the words:

fur, fair, bear, bad,
wear, went, hare, her

- Be sure to leave plenty of time between saying each word for the students to respond.

More words to use that have the /air/ sound:

hair, pair, chair, stair, bare, care, dare, hare, mare, rare, scare, square, pear, wear, swear

BLENDING

- Show the Word Card for square.
- Say that the word has /air/ at the end of the word.
- Ask a student to point to the letters that stand for /air/.
- Sound out square while running a finger under each letter:
/s/ /k/w/ /air/ .
- Say the word quickly square.
- Have the students sound out the word with you.
