

Water

There's water in the rain barrel,
And water in the well,
There's lots of water in the pond
Where Hannah Hawkins fell.

There's water in the ocean,
And water in the skies,
And when a fellow blubbers
He gets water in his eyes.

But in the Barca desert
Where the hippodoodles play,
The water in the rivers
Just dries up and blows away.
