PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Rare opportunity to own multiple large buildings on this 1.1-acre lot. Significant traffic as main three buildings off the street. The front two show on tax records only. This main street location has been home to historically automotive-related businesses. Presently automotive on the main parcel with automotive transmission parts on the second section with a separate entry. The back area is a tire resale area with a private entry area. There are double security gates on the main street. The property has great signage. Avenue I is home to many established businesses. The location has had a very successful business in the past. Make this your new location and collect rent from the other two Blocked walls fenced businesses presently El Cavos Tires and Auto Parts. Both have their own private.

entries. Front buildings both have storefronts with office and attached warehouse areas, Bathrooms, and great retail frontage with signage. The present zoning gives the owner a great opportunity to build a large warehouse or distribution center in the back area where tire and auto parts are located and keep retail operations. Two digitally controlled double gates, in a great area with a large upside with improvements. In addition, there is a large area easement for parking that allows for additional parking. The cement block walls run alongside the property for all the privacy and security. This is an outstanding purchase and has an approximately $ 800,000 loan that the owner stated is assumable.
