Guam is the largest and southernmost of the Mariana Islands, and the largest island in Micronesia. Many, but not all, social welfare programs that are available in the 50 states and the District of Columbia are also available in the United States territories of American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Some programs are only available in certain territories and for some programs the territories receive funding based on different formulas or under different circumstances than do the states.

GLSC-DLC is a private, non-profit corporation that was established in 1979. In 1999 GLSC-DLC was designated the Protection and Advocacy (P&A) System for Guam. The organization is authorized under applicable federal and local laws to protect and promote the human, civil and legal rights of individuals with mental illness and/or developmental and other disabilities through legally based advocacy. In addition, GLSC-DLC assists other vulnerable populations, including survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking and other crimes. It is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of program eligible persons and/or family members. GLSC-DLC cannot provide representation in criminal matters or in matters where the client is seeking monetary compensation.
