Homelessness

https://www.va.gov/homeless/nationalcallcenter.asp
Department of Veterans Affairs: National Call Center for Homeless Veterans
Phone: 877-424-3838 (Toll-free)
The National Call Center for Homeless Veterans hotline provides homeless Veterans and Veterans at-risk for homelessness with free, 24/7 access to trained counselors. The hotline is intended to assist homeless Veterans and their families, VA Medical Centers, federal, state and local partners, community agencies, service providers and others in the community.

http://www.funderstogether.org/
Funders Together to End Homelessness
89 South Street, Suite 803
Boston, MA 02111
Phone: 617-245-0314
Email: info@funderstogether.org
Funders Together’s goal is to build a national network of funders who are committed to solving homelessness through leadership, education, and advocacy; strategic collaboration and grantmaking; and effective promotion and replication of best-practice models.

http://www.goodwillnmi.org/homeless-housing/goodwill-inn-homeless-shelter/homeless-need-help/
Goodwill Inn: Things to Do if You May Become Homeless in a Few Weeks
This page has recommendations for actions people should take if they think they may become homeless in a few weeks and resources they might turn to. Some of the situations addressed are people facing eviction or foreclosure, needing car repairs, or losing their job. Some recommended resources are local to Michigan, but most of the article will apply to people anywhere.

Goodwill Inn: Things to Do if You May Become Homeless in a Few Days
This page has recommendations for actions people should take if they think they may become homeless in a few days in order to avoid going to an emergency shelter, or, if that can't be avoided, to make a stay there as short as possible. Some recommended resources are local to Michigan, but most of the article will apply to people anywhere.
http://homelesslaw.wordpress.com/

Homeless Law Blog
This blog is intended to be a research guide for homeless people trying to learn about their legal rights and liabilities. It presents typical legal questions that arise in homeless life and then provides general information by introducing likely areas of law to investigate, showing search terms, and giving leads to primary law sources.

Homeless Veterans Provider Technical Assistance Center (VET TAC)
Phone: 877-424-3838
VET TAC helps non-profit organizations and faith-based agencies in all states and territories to create programs that assist homeless veterans in the transition from homelessness to independent living.

https://www.samhsa.gov/homelessness-housing
Homelessness Resource Center
E-mail: homelessprograms@samhsa.hhs.gov
The HRC is an interactive community of providers, consumers, policymakers, researchers, and public agencies at federal, state, and local levels sharing state-of-the-art knowledge and promising practices to prevent and end homelessness and to improve the lives of people affected by homelessness who have mental health conditions, substance use issues, and histories of trauma. The HRC is a program of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration, Center for Mental Health Services

http://bphc.hrsa.gov/
Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA): Health Center Programs
This site has information HRSA-supported health centers, including Healthcare for the Homeless Programs that reach out to homeless individuals and families and provide primary care and substance abuse services.

http://findahealthcenter.hrsa.gov/
HRSA: Find a Health Center
This site allows people to search by geographic location for HRSA-supported health centers that serve populations with limited access to health care. These include low income populations, the uninsured, those with limited English proficiency, migrant and seasonal farmworkers, individuals and families experiencing homelessness, and those living in public housing.

https://medlineplus.gov/homelesshealthconcerns.html
Medline Plus: Homeless Health Concerns
This page has information on how poor health can contribute to homelessness and vice versa. There are also links to journal articles and directories of assistance providers.

http://www.endhomelessness.org
National Alliance to End Homelessness
1518 K Street NW, 2nd Floor
NAEH is a nonprofit, non-partisan, organization committed to preventing and ending homelessness in the United States. The Alliance toward ending homelessness by improving policy; providing data and research to policymakers and elected officials; and working collaboratively with the public, private, and nonprofit sectors to build state and local capacity, leading to stronger programs and policies that help communities achieve their goal of ending homelessness.

http://www.nchv.org
National Coalition for Homeless Veterans
1730 M St., NW Suite 705
Washington, DC 20036
Phone: 202-546-1969, 800-838-4357 (Toll-free)
E-mail: info@nchv.org
The NCHV is the resource and technical assistance center for a national network of community-based service providers and local, state and federal agencies that provide emergency and supportive housing, food, health services, job training and placement assistance, legal aid and case management support for hundreds of thousands of homeless veterans each year.

http://www.nationalhomeless.org
National Coalition for the Homeless (NCH)
2201 P Street NW
Washington, DC 20037
Phone: 202-462-4822
E-mail: info@nationalhomeless.org
NCH is a national network of people who are currently experiencing or who have experienced homelessness, activists and advocates, community-based and faith-based service providers, and others committed to a single mission: to prevent and end homelessness while ensuring the immediate needs of those experiencing homelessness are met and their civil rights protected.

http://www.nationalhomeless.org/publications/facts.html
NCH: Fact Sheets
This page has links to NCH fact sheets on various aspects of homelessness. Each sheet summarizes facts and issues and contains a list of recommended reading for further research.

http://www.nhchc.org
National Health Care for the Homeless Council (NHCHC)
Mailing Address:
P.O. Box 60427
Nashville, TN 37206
Physical Address:
NHCHC is composed of over 100 agencies and over 1,000 individuals who work to improve the health of homeless people. The Council conducts advocacy, training, technical assistance, research and peer support.

http://www.socialsecurity.gov/ssi/spotlights/spot-homeless.htm

Social Security Administration: SSI Spotlight on Homelessness
This page has information on how homeless people can obtain SSI benefits and how homelessness can affect their benefits.

http://www.tacinc.org/technical-assistance-consultation/knowledge-areas/homelessness/

Technical Assistance Collaborative: Homelessness
TAC provides comprehensive, coordinated assistance to state and local government officials, service providers, homeless organizations, and Continuum of Care (CoC) planning groups on all issues related to homeless planning and strategy development. TAC’s areas of expertise include housing finance, Medicaid funding for supportive housing, mainstream resource access, Housing First, reductions in reliance on shelter, homelessness prevention, new paradigms of supportive housing, outcome measurements, and linking public mental health and housing systems.

http://www.tacinc.org/knowledge-resources/priced-out-findings/

Priced Out is a series of housing publications created as a joint effort by the TAC and the Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities (CCD) Housing Task Force. Priced Out is published every two years to bring attention to the nation’s housing affordability crisis facing people with disabilities.

http://www.hhs.gov/homeless/

U.S. Department of Health & Human Services: Homelessness
This page has information on HHS’ services for consumers, providers, and policy makers working to end homelessness, including grants, research and publications, and resources.

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD): Annual Homeless Assessment Report to Congress

The information contained in this message is presented for the purpose of educating and informing you about paralysis and its effects. Nothing contained in this message should be construed nor is intended to be used for medical diagnosis or treatment. It should not be used in place of the advice of your physician or other qualified health care provider. Should you have any health care related questions, please call or see your physician or other qualified health care provider promptly. Always consult with your physician or other qualified health care provider before embarking on a new treatment, diet or fitness program. You should never disregard medical advice or delay in seeking it because of something you have read in this message.
This project was supported, in part, by grant number 90PRRC0002, from the U.S. Administration for Community Living, Department of Health and Human Services, Washington, D.C. 20201. Grantees undertaking projects under government sponsorship are encouraged to express freely their findings and conclusions. Points of view or opinions do not, therefore, necessarily represent official Administration for Community Living policy.