Housing for People with Disabilities

Accessible housing options for those living with disability can be challenging in many locations. According to the report Priced Out, in 220 housing markets across 40 states one-bedroom rents exceeded 100% of monthly SSI payments in 2016. Millions of adults with disabilities living solely on Supplemental Security Income (SSI) found that renting even a modest unit in their community would require nearly all of their monthly income. In hundreds of higher-cost housing markets, the average rent for such basic units is actually much greater than the entirety of an SSI monthly payment. There are some nationwide and community-based organizations which people can turn to for assistance and support with housing. These resources include the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) as well as your state and local housing authority. HUD has the primary responsibility for enforcing the Fair Housing Act.

Technical Assistance Collaborative (TAC): Priced Out in the United States

Government Websites

https://acl.gov/HousingAndServices

Administration for Community Living: Housing and Services Resource Center
Developed as a partnership between the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Housing and Services Resource Center provides information and tools to assist people who work in the housing field make community living possible.

https://www.habitat.org/

Habitat for Humanity International
Phone: 229-924-6935
Toll-free: 1-800-HABITAT (1-800-422-4828)
Habitat for Humanity partners with families to enable them to build their own homes alongside their volunteers. In response to the ever-growing need for shelter in your community and around the world, Habitat works in many ways: new construction, repairs to existing homes, small loans for incremental building and home improvements, help establishing title and ownership to land, advocacy for better laws and systems, disaster prevention and recovery, and more.
HUD sponsors housing counseling agencies throughout the country that can provide advice on buying a home, renting, defaults, foreclosures, and credit issues.

HUD: Certain Development Voucher Program

HUD: Disability Rights in Housing

HUD: Fair Housing—It’s Your Right

HUD is organized in 10 Regions

If you need public housing assistance or would like specific information about public housing programs such as housing choice vouchers, please contact your local Public Housing Agency.

HUD: Reasonable Accommodations and Modifications

U.S. Department of the Treasury: Making Home Affordable: Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP)
The largest program within MHA is the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP). HAMP’s goal is to offer homeowners who are at risk of foreclosure reduced monthly mortgage payments that are affordable and sustainable over the long-term.

Organization Websites

Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities Housing Task Force

http://www.fhrc.org/About-Us.html
Fair Housing Resource Center Inc.
1100 Mentor St Ave.
Painesville OH 44077
Phone: 440-392-0147
This non-profit organization offers residents of Lake, Geauga and Ashtabula counties (in Ohio) several housing programs.

http://nlihc.org/
National Low Income Housing Coalition
1000 Vermont Ave NW, Suite 500
Washington, DC 20005
Phone: 202-662-1530

http://www.tacinc.org/knowledge-resources/priced-out-v2/
Technical Assistance Collaborative (TAC): Priced Out in the United States
The Priced Out report, co-authored by TAC and the Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities Housing Task Force, documents the nationwide housing affordability crisis experienced by people with disabilities. The full report can be downloaded from this website.

Please see the Reeve Foundation’s fact sheet on Home Modifications if you are interested in modifying a home.

The information contained in this message is presented for the purpose of educating and informing you about paralysis and its effects. Nothing contained in this message should be construed nor is intended to be used for medical diagnosis or treatment. It should not be used in place of the advice of your physician or other qualified health care provider. Should you have any health care related questions, please call or see your physician or other qualified health care provider promptly. Always consult with your physician or other qualified health care provider before embarking on a new treatment, diet or fitness program. You should never disregard medical advice or delay in seeking it because of something you have read in this message.
This publication is supported by the Administration for Community Living (ACL), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $8,700,000 with 100 percent funding by ACL/HHS. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by ACL/HHS, or the U.S. Government.