PATH members, instructors and centers serve participants of all ages and with a range of physical, emotional, behavioral and cognitive challenges. The organization and its members have developed a variety of different equine-related activities for therapeutic purposes, collectively known as equine-assisted activities and therapies (or EAAT).
Besides horseback riding, EAAT also includes therapeutic carriage driving; interactive vaulting, which is similar to gymnastics on horseback; equine-facilitated learning and mental health, which use the horse as a partner in cognitive and behavioral therapy, usually with the participation of a licensed therapist; ground work and stable management. PATH’s Equine Services for Heroes (formerly Horses for Heroes) is a program that uses a variety of EAAT disciplines specifically to help war veterans and military personnel. PATH certifies instructors and riding centers in therapeutic riding, driving and vaulting in the United States.
