

All Eternity will be Enough

By Marti Ensign

I'd like to share a scrapbook with you today of some of the memorial articles and funeral information I kept from when we said goodbye to Corrie. I've also included some personal photographs.

The unique thing about this memorial service was that Corrie and Pam (her personal assistant) had it all planned and on paper a long time before Corrie died. Many of the big churches in Southern California were vying to hold the memorial at their church. The most insistent one was the Crystal Cathedral. Their church policy did not allow for women in the pulpit, but any time they could get Corrie to speak there, they had her and made a very big fuss about her.

Soooo ... Pam and Corrie contacted the Fairhaven Memorial Park in Santa Ana for the burial and were promised their Episcopal Chapel for the service.

Attendance was by invitation only and that packed the chapel to capacity. It was a bittersweet occasion. Most of us near to Corrie had been praying for years for God to release her from the silent body and take her to Glory, but when it happened, I personally fell apart. What would the world be like for me without my precious Tante Corrie? My husband Len supported me well and reasoned with me, and at the service my longtime friend, Cliff Barrows, was at my side to lend a shoulder and speak a word that calmed me down.

I love to think of her now and all the reunions with Opa and Betsie and all the others and to think of her with Mother Teresa and the saints she knew about but did not meet on earth. Once when our visit was cut short and I was complaining a bit that I did not get to finish visiting with her, she smiled at me. "Marti," she said, "we will have all eternity to visit. I think that will be enough." So I am looking forward to that visit. For sure.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Miss ten Boom, author, survivor of Nazis, dies

PLACENTIA, Calif. (UPI) — Author Corrie ten Boom, who was sent to a Nazi concentration camp for protecting Jews in the occupied Netherlands and survived to become a best-selling Christian writer, died Friday on her 91st birthday.

Ten Boom wrote 18 books that sold over 7 million copies, including the autobiographical "The Hiding Place," which was made into a 1975 movie starring Julie Harris.

Ten Boom, who had been ill since 1978 when she suffered the first of a series of strokes, died at her home, a family spokesman said yesterday.

Ten Boom spent the first 50 years of her life as a watchmaker in her father's shop in Haarlem, the Netherlands.

ten Boom (Tree)

Light and shade
Coolness
You give protection
Recognized from afar

Giant
Defying unruly storms
Whispering modestly
in a playful summer breeze

Thank you tree
You give us air
You give us life
You are the tree of life.

ten Boom
Father, Betsie, Corrie
They gave protection
They defied violent storms
They brought light
Yes, especially light.

Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus

Stand up, stand up for Jesus, Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner, It must not suffer loss;
From victory unto victory His army He shall lead,
Till every foe is vanquished, And Christ is Lord indeed.

Refrain:

Stand up, stand up for Jesus, Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner, It must not, it must not suffer loss.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus, The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict, In this His glorious day;
"Ye that are men, now serve Him" Against un-numbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger, And strength to strength oppose.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus, The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle, The next the victor's song;
To him that overcometh, A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory shall reign eternally.

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

Great is thy faithfulness, Oh God my Father,
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions, they fail not;
As Thou hast been Thou forever wilt be.

Refrain:

Great is Thy faithfulness! Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see;
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided—
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
Thy own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine with ten thousand beside!

Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty

Praise ye the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;
Join me in glad adoration!

Praise ye the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth!
Hast Thou not seen How thy desires e'er have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise ye the Lord, who with marvelous wisdom hath made thee!
Decked thee with health, and with loving hand guided and stayed thee;
How oft in grief Hath not He brought thee relief,
Spreading His wings for to shade thee!

Praise ye the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him;
Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye
we adore Him.

youth for christ

"Christ calls us to a ruggedness and a non-conformity that appeals to young people psychologically as well as spiritually. That is what Youth for Christ is doing! It is calling young people out of the crowd to be willing to stand and be counted for Jesus Christ."

Youth for Christ, from the very first day, preached the Lord Jesus Christ, and they have remained true these years.

I never go to a mission field anywhere that I don't meet young people who were converted through this organization... all of these fellows with their dedication, their fire, spiritual maturity and enthusiasm and the love and cooperation with the Lord's people—all of this together has amounted to blessing and the anointing of the Spirit of God.

Ralph Fry, Director Youth For Christ/Seattle

If Youth for Christ did not exist, it would have to be invented. Someone would have to dare to meet them on their own terms. Someone would have to have the imagination to attract their full attention. Someone would have to take the risk of loving and losing as well as winning them. Youth for Christ exists! Its leadership is vital, its ministry is timely, and its results live among us as examples of Christ's new creation among the young.

David L. McKenna, President Seattle Pacific College

I believe Scripture changes lives. When it is in the language of the people, it can powerfully communicate to a wide variety of individuals. CAMPUS LIFE Magazine relates the truths of the Bible to young people where they live, in their language—its graphic, human-interest approach changes lives as the readers see the Scriptures come alive in other young people.

Ken Taylor, President Tyndale House Publishers Translator of The Living Bible

YFC has always felt a deep concern for the spiritual needs of young people around the world. We rejoice that there are now YFC programs in 300 cities and 44 countries. I believe the need and opportunity to present Christ to the youth of all nations is greater now than ever before. We in America must continue to support world-wide youth evangelism.

Benediction

Our Special thanks to Mr. Lloyd Cooney, KIRO, Inc., along with Mr. Stan Keck, Aero-Marc, Inc., and Mr. Carl Pearson of Creative Message for their help in providing closed circuit television coverage to the overflow crowds.

CORRIE TEN BOOM was a child of the gay nineties. But there was a period right after she reached the half century mark when there was no gaiety in her life — not by a long shot. That was the time of her arrest in her native Haarlem, Holland and her subsequent imprisonment at Ravensbruck extermination camp in Germany.

There during World War II, smoke poured forth from the crematory; a total of 96,000 womens lives were taken. Miraculously, through a clerks error, Corrie was released — not hurled into a furnace.

A dutch Christian, Corrie's "Crime" had been the leading of a resistance force primarily engaged in hiding Jews and otherwise assisting them in their efforts to escape Nazi persecution.

Central to everything is Corrie's deep faith in God and thus following her release from prison on Dec. 28, 1944, Corrie began devoting her full time to a two-way ministry; Lecturing and writing (she is the author of 11 books including "THE HIDING PLACE").

Corrie never believed her release was a clerks error! She was spared she will tell you, to speed the great truths she and her sister Betsy had learned. "That there is no pit so deep and no darkness so black that the love of Jesus Christ and His power cannot triumph over it".

Corrie was born in 1892 and at Eighty Three she has crisscrossed the globe many times in her enthusiastic mission to tell as many people as possible about her faith in God, His power to lift us above our circumstances and to give us a truly abundant life.

A report in the official "Social Security Bulletin," including figures up to 1978, said about 1 million workers aged 62-71 had their checks lowered because of outside earnings over the limit.

But the study said the number of retired workers who got lower benefits because of the so-called "earnings test" dropped by about a third between 1970 and 1978.
