CityServe Augusta 2019

4. Recap of This Year’s Project
This year’s CityServe project was a great success! Seventeen churches, plus nonprofit groups, city workers, soldiers from Ft. Gordon, and others—over 1,000 people—participated in 43 projects to meet real needs in our city while promoting unity, diversity, and community. Volunteers changed oil for single moms, worked at schools, community centers, parks, a cemetery, a health and rehab center, and at abandoned, neglected and condemned properties to demonstrate the love of Christ to our neighbors in the Augusta area. Rick Keuroglian, CityServe coordinator, said “There is something about the community that wants to do things like I’ve never seen.” He added, “It’s not caught, it’s taught. If people can see it and experience it, it’s contagious.”

Plan now to experience for yourself next year’s CityServe, tentatively planned for April 18, 2020.

Please pray for First Pres member Charles Hutchison, who is recovering from injuries he received while serving.

1. Missionaries of the Week
Amy and Doug Nunziato—Missionary Aviation Training Academy; Washington
The Nunziatos serve by helping disciple and train future missionary pilots who will work around the world. Pray for Doug as he is now balancing being the Bible Study Coordinator and mentoring aviation students. Please pray for Doug’s mother as she has stage four pancreatic cancer and has opted for no treatment. Also pray for the family as they travel back and forth over the next few months to be with her.

2. Quarterly Children’s Ministry Training, Today
5 p.m. | St. Andrew’s Hall | Child Care
Children’s Ministry volunteers, please plan to attend training today at 5 p.m. We will be learning more about age-specific learning. Child care will be available for fifth grade and under. Please feed your children at home before the training.

3. Ordination Service and Reception for Luke Niday, Tonight
Please plan to attend the ordination service for Luke Niday during the evening service tonight. Luke was approved for ordination into gospel ministry at the April 16 meeting of the Savannah River Presbytery. We praise God for his calling on Luke’s life, and look forward to his continued ministry at First Presbyterian as Assistant Pastor of Outreach. A reception in the Commons will follow the service.

Our Church Family

5. If You Lost It, We May Have Found It!
We are cleaning out the lost and found closet. Please stop by the Commons to see if we found anything you lost. There is an assortment of Bibles, clothing, umbrellas, reading glasses, etc. Anything not claimed by May 12 will be donated.

6. Update on Search for Additional Pastor
The search for the next member of our regular preaching team is still underway and progressing steadily. Please continue to pray for the next man to partner with our other pastors in leading our church.

7. A New Season at the Presbyterian Peninsula
First Presbyterian is blessed with the use of lake property we refer to as The Presbyterian Peninsula. The property is available year-round for church members and their guests, and for non-member groups with approval from the Diaconate Peninsula Team. The property is gated, but we are not changing the locks this season, so last year’s key works. Members over age 21 who don’t have a key may purchase one at the church office for $30. All proceeds go toward maintaining the property. To learn more about Presbyterian Peninsula, visit firstpresaugusta.org/pres-pen.

8. Holy Week Art Display
Contact: Jonathan Harper, jharper@firstpresaugusta.org
Art by First Presbyterian members is on display in the main building before and after worship services and other events through today. The display is based on Isaiah 53 and accompanies the Holy Week sermon series.

9. Please Keep Us Informed
Contact: churchoffice@firstpresaugusta.org or 706.262.8900
Please remember to let the church staff know of the important events in your lives. Many times people assume that the staff and other members know about the birth of a new baby, a wedding in the family, a serious illness, an upcoming hospitalization or the loss of a loved one, when that is not the case. We would rather hear about these events several times from several people than miss an important event.

10. Download Our Church App
Get connected to First Presbyterian through our church app! Access the bulletin, listen to or watch sermons, stay up to date with church news and events, and give online quickly and conveniently. Download the app today from your app store by searching “First Presbyterian Church Augusta.”

Youth Ministry

11. Staff Update
We praise God for the work he has done through Sarah Boudet during her internship here over the past two years. Sarah’s work serving our students and their families will no doubt have a lasting kingdom impact. Sarah is starting a new position at Safe Homes of Augusta this month. She is recently engaged to Cole Maffetone of Augusta, and they are busy planning their October wedding.
