Today at First Presbyterian

1. Missionaries of the Week
Mackenzie and Zach Dalton—Amazima School: Uganda
The Daltons are family mentors for 24 teenage girls at the Amazima School where they disciple the girls and help them with homework, chores and sports. After living in Uganda for three years, they will be moving back to the States in December of this year. Pray for discernment and wisdom in choosing where to live, what careers to pursue, and transitioning well in general. Pray for peace and to trust God’s promise that his grace is sufficient as they finish their time with the students. Pray for the mother of one of their students who has just become a Christian to find a way out of her bad living and career situation so she can be on the road to healing physically, mentally, and spiritually.

During evening worship this summer our sermon series is “The God You Can Know.” Our pastors will preach on the attributes of God presented in the Westminster Shorter Catechism, Question 4: What is God? Answer: God is a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth. We will learn how each attribute reveals God’s presence and work in our daily lives. Tonight, John Franks, will preach from Romans 11:33-36 on “Oh, the Depth of the Riches of God’s Wisdom and Knowledge!”

3. Missionary Prayer Hour
5:15 p.m. | Eve Room
Please plan to attend the Missionary Prayer Hour tonight as we have the privilege of hearing from Chris Drinkard. He and his wife, Cary, are Campus Outreach missionaries to Manila, Philippines. Tonight will provide us the opportunity to pray for and with this missionary, for those in very hard places.

10. 2019 McKnight Lectures, July 14–August 4
Being Known: Shame, Sexuality, and Community

More information/registration: firstpresaugusta.org

Deep in all of us there is a desire to be known and loved, right? Or could it be that if you really knew me, I would feel unsafe and exposed? This is our dilemma; God created us to be known and loved, but brokenness becomes a barrier. This year, the McKnight Lectures will focus on what it means to be known by God and others and the obstacles that prevent us from accepting God’s extravagant love. All adult and high school Sunday School classes are encouraged to attend the teachings on Sundays at 9:45 a.m. from July 14–August 4 in St. Andrew’s Hall. Beginning July 21, we will have Coffeehouse Gatherings at 5 p.m. in Murphy Hall each Sunday to allow time to process and informally discuss the McKnight Lectures. Child care is not available for the Saturday seminars.
