"A major goal for us since 2016 has been to further establish ourselves as thought leaders within the independent lodging and hospitality industries, and a major part of this initiative is connecting with other thought leaders in travel," said ResortsandLodges.com CEO, Ryan Bailey. "Our partnership with Doug Kennedy allows us to offer our customers and partners one of a kind access to one of the top thought leaders in hospitality and reservations sales. Increased complexity in guest communication demands that property owners, reservations managers, and agents have the tools required to maximize production."

"Besides engaging me to conduct the regularly scheduled private webinars throughout the year exclusively for their clients, it's very generous of Resorts and Lodges to also hire me to present free webinars open to help our entire industry move ahead," said Kennedy about this unique opportunity. "I truly hope to provide everyone with some tangible action steps for improving sales in 2018 during this webinar."

Kennedy's monthly hotel sales and guest service training articles inspire readers worldwide. Kennedy Training Network is our marketing alliance partner, and we are pleased to provide this 2017 webinar series as a value added feature for our clients, prospects and the industry at large.
