THE "MY LEARNING / MY ASSIGNMENTS" PAGE

After you log in, you'll see this page:

Click to see a history of all the text blocks you've "rewordified."

Click to see all of your assignments.

Here are all the words you learned in a Learning Session. The site won't "rewordify" these words.

These are words you clicked on while reading. You can start learning them at any time by clicking on the button(s) in the gray box(es), here.

Log out here.

Click to change your password.

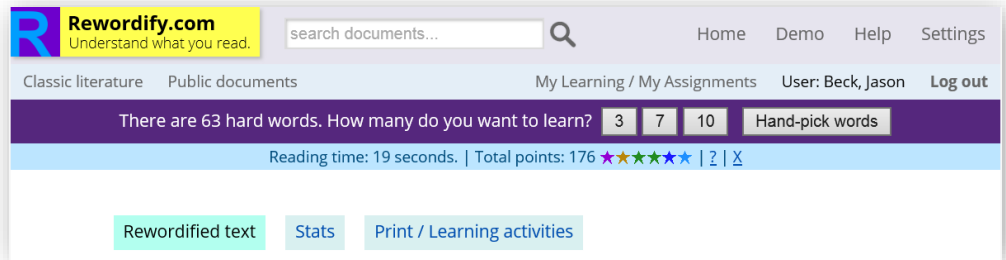

This section lets you print charts that show your reading and learning progress.

You're working on learning these words. Click on any word to continue your Learning Session where you left off.

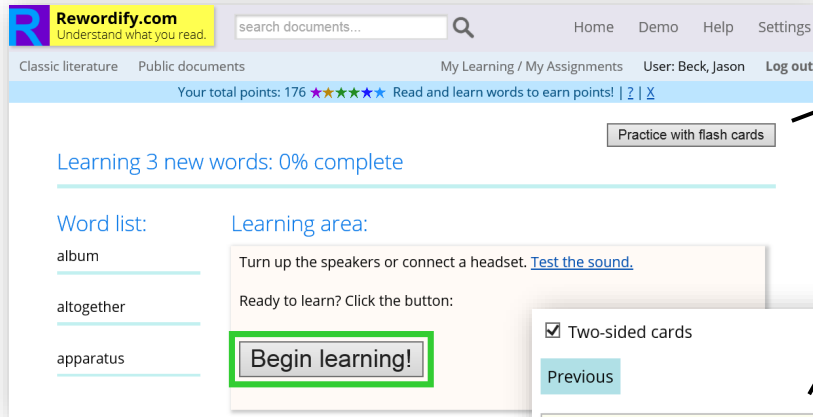

LEARN MORE WORDS IN LEARNING SESSIONS

Every time you “rewordify” text, you’ll see a purple bar at the top. Click a button in that purple bar to start a Learning Session. You can usually choose how many words to learn at once.

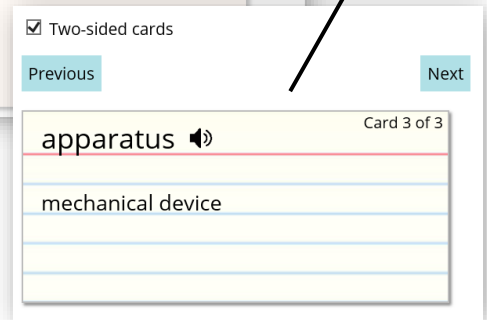

You’ll then start learning words in a Learning Session. Click the “Begin Learning” button to begin. Go through the session, step by step, and you’ll learn the new words quickly.

You can stop a Learning Session any time you like. To continue with one later, click on the “My Learning / My Assignments” page and click on the “Words I’m Learning” section (see other side).

Click this button and you can practice the word list with flash cards, too!

PRINT YOUR OWN STUDY MATERIALS

After you rewordify text, click “Print / Learning activities” to get printable materials that can really help you learn. Try printing some to see which ones you like best!
