DAY 2: MELBOURNE CITY TOUR. FREE DAY.

After breakfast from your hotel, enjoy your half day Melbourne City Tour.

Note: Please make your own way from/to hotel and pick up/drop off point.

There is so much to see in this diverse city with historical buildings, world-renowned gardens and markets, Australia's best art museums, multiculturalism, exciting food scene, sporting stadiums, lively downtown café scene and the best shopping arcades in the land.

We make sure you get a feel for why Melbourne is regarded so highly and will show you all of the following locations.

Parliament Hill –Treasury Building, House of Parliament, Windsor Hotel

The 'Paris End' of Collins St –travel along the Golden Mile and see how the city was laid out during the 'boom' period of the 1850's Gold Rush.

Queen Victoria Market –Australia's largest 'open air' market. Home to the city's freshest fruit and vegetables, the amazing delicatessen and the famous Melbourne 'fish market'.

Lygon Street – Melbourne's Little Italy and the home of the city's famed coffee culture.

Royal Exhibition Building – UNESCO protected and surrounded by the Carlton Gardens.

Sports Precinct – See Australia's biggest stadiums and learn all about our original game of Australian Rules Football.

St Patrick's Cathedral – Built from bluestone and sandstone, St Patrick's Cathedral is a leading example of Gothic-revival architecture.

Fitzroy Gardens – home of Cook's Cottage and the delightful Conservatory.
Federation Square – Melbourne's central square with its modern Architecture, surrounding Flinders St Station & St P

The Shrine of Remembrance – Victoria's spectacular national war memorial. Built to honour the men and women of Victoria who served in World War I, it now serves as a memorial to Australians who served in global conflicts throughout our nation's history. Walk to the top to see stunning views of Melbourne.

Melbourne's Arts Precinct – one of the great creative and cultural destinations in the world including the National Gallery of Victoria, Victorian College of the Arts & Hamer Hall.

DAY 3: MT. BULLER SNOW TOUR.

Packed breakfast from the hotel.

Tour Departs: 5:20am
Returns: 8:30pm

Note: Please make your own way from/to hotel and pick up/drop off point.

Mount Buller is a must-visit winter alpine destination. Nestled high on the ski fields, the resort offers travelers quaint lodges, luxury hotels, and cozy restaurants and cafes. Over 300 hectares of snowfields cover all four sides of the mountain, providing skiers and snowboarders with 25 different lifts to try out, ranging from gentle slopes to a spectacular double black diamond chute, catering to all ability levels. If hitting the slopes isn't your thing, there are plenty of activities for non-skiers. Sightseers can indulge in tobogganing, light snow play, or simply explore the remarkable village, enjoying what the town has to offer from the base of the mountain.

The bus journey to Mount Buller passes through the Yarra Valley and the high country, offering spectacular views of the mountains and snowy landscape. Along the way, we stop at Mansfield to pick up your hire equipment and perhaps grab a coffee. Clothing and equipment will be available for hire on the day, or you can pre-purchase one of our discounted packages to be ready when you arrive.

Then, we wind our way up the breathtaking mountain range until we arrive at the Mount Buller Alpine Resort. From here, the day is yours to indulge in your chosen activity and explore the region. With up to 5 hours on the snow, this day tour to Mt. Buller offers one of the best values around.
