

Adam's Peak [Day Tours]

Adam's Peak journey begin

- Pick up from the hotel or city you require.
- Travel to Nallathanni & en-route sightseeing or shopping.
- Start the climbing of Adam's Peak in the evening. Sri Pada or Adam's Peak
- Though not the highest mountain of Sri Lanka, the striking pyramid of Adam's Peak (7,360 ft) is certainly the most remarkable. A depression in the rocky summit resembles a huge footprint, which has been venerated as a sacred sign from remote antiquity. This was identified by Buddhists as the Buddha's footprint, by Hindus as that of Shiva, and by Muslims as Adam's. Later the Portuguese attributed it to St. Thomas the Apostle.
- Overnight stay in Nallathanniya.

Adam's Peak journey end

- The begin of the next day morning will be a magnificent view.
- The Mahawamsa tells how the sacred footprint was imprinted by the departing Buddha on his third visit to Lanka, but the site did not become an object of regular Buddhist pilgrimage until the Polonnaruwa period, when Vijayabahu I built resting houses for pilgrims and King Nissankamalla himself, in the year 1201, climbed to the top and worshipped the spot.
- Travel to the departure place you require & drop off to the required destination.
