In June a Ministerial Order was issued in respect of the formation of a task force to pursue the applications for petroleum licences. The terms of reference of the task force are to co-ordinate with the Registry of Commerce at the Ministry of Industry & Commerce to follow up the applications for petroleum licences. The main functions of the task force include:

- Determining the conditions which must be fulfilled by a petroleum licence applicant.
- Monitoring the applications with the Directorate of the Registry of Commerce.
- Updating the Ministry's officials concerned with such applications on a regular basis.

The task force comprises three Directors, namely:

1. Mr. Mohammed Jaffer Al-Sayyad Director of Economic Research.
2. Mr. Fayhan Mohammed Nasser Al-Fayhani Director of Petrochemical Industries.
3. Shaikh Mohammed bin Abdul Rahman Al-Khalifa Acting Director of Oil.
