

K1 Million for the 2015 Pacific Games

Minister for Sports and Pacific Games, Honourable Justine Tkatchenko, MP, Chair-lady of 2015 Pacific Games Committee, Mrs Emma Waiwai, Chairman of Petromin PNG Holdings, Sir Brown Bai and Acting MD of Petromin PNG Holdings, Mr Jerry Wemin at the Cheque Presentation Ceremony at Petromin Haus last week.

Petromin PNG Holdings Limited appreciates the opportunity to support our upcoming Pacific Games in 2015. Petromin PNG Holdings has paid the Pacific Games Organising Committee one million Kina (K1 million) to support the country host the 2015 Pacific Games. As recently announced by the Sports Minister, Papua New Guinea is experiencing a major surge in international sporting successes. Petromin as a proud national company supports our sportsmen and sportswomen stand up for our country and challenge the best competitors from the region. Petromin congratulates the government and especially the Minister for Sports and the Pacific Games and all sporting bodies in the country on the notable sporting successes of our sportsmen and sportswomen in recent years.

Petromin believes our country is entering into a new sporting era. The 2015 Pacific Games will mark a beginning of this new era of sporting excellence and global competitiveness.

In the business world, meeting international standards and competitiveness, has been also the aspiration of Petromin since its inception. Petromin is to date one of Papua New Guinea's cleanest, dividend paying and compliant national company. Petromin rubs shoulders with many international business stakeholders and is proud of its achievements and standing internationally.

Recently in support of the Prime Minister's effort to curb the spread of TB and cancer in the country, Petromin has spent around K100,000 to support this public awareness campaign of the Government through the Department of Health. Petromin has supported the government's preventative approach to public health management. The ongoing public awareness campaigns on the dreaded TB and cancer in our country is critical for a healthy Papua New Guinea both in the present and the future. Petromin fully supports the initiative of our Prime Minister who is the Trustee Shareholder of Petromin PNG Holdings Limited.

Petromin PNG Holdings believes in the future of the country. Supporting international sporting events helps Papua New Guinea find its place in the region and the wider global community. There is only one direction for the country and that is upwards as the country strives to achieve its Vision 2050 target, to be rank the 50th Country in the World by 2050 in terms of the United Nations Human Development Index (HDI).

On behalf of Petromin PNG Holdings' Board, Management and Staff, we wish the PNG team and the 2015 Pacific Games Organising Committee every success in their endeavour to make the 2015 Pacific Games a special landmark event for a new sporting era.

God has Blessed Papua New Guinea.
Jerry Wemin - Acting Managing Director
