GEPetrol merges with the 3G Consortium

On 16th February the director general of the Equatorial Guinea national oil company, GEPetrol, Antonio Oburu Ondo, formalised the creation of a new joint enterprise through the signing of a constitution, on the merger of GEPetrol and the 3G Consortium.

19/02/2016

GEPetrol has merged with the 3G Consortium to create GEPROC S.A., to provide services covering:

-Acquisition and supply of materials and equipment

-Consultancy, training and engineering services

-Manufacture of high-integrity industrial goods for the hydrocarbon and gas sectors, especially valves, pipes, couplings, flanges and others.

-Acquisitions, logistics, equipment and services for oil company personnel, exploitation and drilling service companies, manufacture of products and equipment, and other contractors related to oil exploitation, both national and international.

The creation of this joint enterprise is added to the efforts of the general directorate to make GEPetrol the benchmark supplier of oil services in the country.
