AFRICAN REVIEW, JUN/13/2016;

South Sudan High Court Monday sentenced at least 16 government officials to life in prison for embezzlin

The officials reportedly occasioned the loss of more than $14 million from the Office of the President.

Those jailed are former employees at the State High Office of President Salva Kiir.

Corruption scandals: The Juba court was presided by High Court judge, Lado Erminio, who passed the lif sentence on the 16 government officials.

Their names and positions are:

- 1- John Agou Wuoi, Security officer; according to the investigator, Agou used his position at the Office of t Click Company to receive 14 million US dollars and 30,994,832 SSP to Kenyan account operated by his v
- 2- Anyieth Chaat Paul,
- 3- Yel Luol, Pres. Kiir's Chief Office Administrator
- 4- Chaat Paul, Director of communications
- 5- Mayen Wol, Pres. Kiir's Executive Office Director
- 6- Diing Ajieng,
- 7- Nhumot Agot, Controller of Accounts
- 8- Ana Kalisto, Accountant, office of the president
- 9- Kur Ayuen,
