Section 69L. Company to keep register of substantial shareholders.

(1) A company shall keep a register in which it shall forthwith enter—

(a) in alphabetical order the names of persons from whom it has received a notice under section 69E; and

(b) against each name so entered the information given in the notice and, where it receives a notice under section 69F or 69G, the information given in that notice.

(2) The register shall be kept at the registered office of the company, and shall be open for inspection by any member of the company without charge and by any other person on payment for each inspection of a sum of five ringgit or such lesser sum as the company requires.

(3) The Registrar may at any time in writing require the company to furnish him with a copy of the register or any part of the register and the company shall furnish the copy within fourteen days after the day on which the requirement is received by the company.

(4) If default is made in complying with this section, the company, and every officer of the company who is in default is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Five thousand ringgit. Default penalty: Five hundred ringgit.

(5) A company is not, by reason of anything done under this Division—

(a) to be deemed for any purpose to have notice of; or

(b) to be put upon inquiry as to,

a right of a person to or in relation to a share in the company.
