

Home

Minerals and Mining

About the AGSBase metals

... the Afghan Copper Belt is host to three known copper deposits and a further 35 occurrences ...

ContactsFerrous metalsGeologyIndustrial minerals

... industrial minerals are vital in underpinning the manufacturing and construction sectors of the world economy ...

Minerals & MiningAfghan Marble Promotion Showcase[Information
Resources](#)Other metals

... preliminary exploration has identified zones with rare earth enrichment and veinlets with bright yellow uraninite ...

Precious metalsEnvironmentPrecious stones

... some of the earliest records of mining anywhere in the world are from Afghanistan, dating back over 6000 years ...

Donor SupportRare metalsLinks

... at the Darrahe-Pech deposit beryl crystals up to 40cm across have been discovered ...

Seven brochures have been produced by BGS describing the potential for minerals in Afghanistan.

[Department of
Mines Affairs](#)The Aynak copper depositThe potential for copperThe potential for goldHajigak brochureMarble brochureRare Metals brochure

Gemstones Brochure

Home | About the AGS | Contacts | Geology | Minerals & Mining | Info Resources | Environment | Donor Support | Links | DMA

© Afghanistan Geological Survey 2016. This site is hosted by the British Geological Survey but responsibility for the content of the site lies with Afghanistan Geological Survey not with the British Geological Survey. Questions, suggestions or comments regarding the contents of this site should be directed to Dr Atiq Sediqi.