Reports and associated evidence – Reports of Committee inquiries
This category may also include Special Reports where they are used by a Committee to bring matters relating to conduct of its business to the notice of the House.

Responses to Reports - Responses may be published as a Special Report, or as a Command Paper. They may also be appended to a Report should the Committee have substantial comments on the Response, in which case they can be found listed under Reports.

Other oral and written evidence - Evidence taken by the Committee that has yet to or did not result in the publication of a Report. This includes transcripts of recent meetings.

Estimate Memoranda - An Estimate memorandum is an explanatory note that accompanies a government department's estimate (a memorandum by which a department seeks authority from Parliament for its spending plans).

Correspondence - Correspondence sent from or received by the Committee or its Chair.
