Upcoming Events

Personal Property Security Registry now live

The IPA is pleased to announce that the Personal Property Securities Act Registry has gone live since May 9th 2016.

This now means that IPA will no longer register charges under the Companies Act.

Clients will need to register their charges online by going to the "Do it online" tab and clicking the "PPSR" option under the Personal Property Security option.

The Registrar of Personal Properties Securities advised that the transition period for registering Notices of Pre-Existing Security Interest and Notices of Pre-Existing Execution Creditor will be ending on November 5, 2016. All registrations over property that came into existence before the PPSA commenced need to be lodged in the system by the end of the day PNGTime on November 5, 2016, in order to maintain your existing priority position. Please direct any questions or concerns to support.ppsrpng@paradigmapps.com
