Milagrosa Obono Angue, Secretary of State Charged with the treasury, held the first meeting of the year with personnel from her department, to deal with matters relating to this area.

13/02/2016

The aim of the meeting was to congratulate all personnel for the good work done in 2015, and wish them a happy 2016 full of successes and even better results.

At the same time, she invited all the Public Treasury personnel to always maintain professional secrecy and confidentiality on all areas, and to act responsibly at all times.

The Secretary of State pointed out that the computerisation of toll-booths, although not yet fully implemented, and the launch of the school transport system, are priority objectives of the ministry.

During the meeting Milagrosa was accompanied by the Director General of the Treasury, the Auditor General, and the General Cashier of State.
