50-Word Copy

The RIOTORO Aurox Prism RGB gaming mouse's 10000 DPI optical sensor delivers ultra-precision. Its shape is contoured to provide hours of comfort with 8 programmable buttons, including a sniper side button, to provide gamers a competitive edge. RGB lighting with constant and pulsing modes, and an aluminum scroll wheel adds the perfect amount of flash.

100-Word Copy

The RIOTORO Aurox Prism RGB gaming mouse is fine-tuned to deliver best-in-class ergonomics, precision and customization. The 10000 DPI optical sensor, adjustable in fine increments, enables gamers to optimize the resolution and acceleration from ultra-precise to insanely fast. The ergonomic shape is contoured to provide hours of comfort for long gaming sessions, with each of the 8 programmable buttons and rubber grip scroll wheel situated under the fingers. A side-mounted thumb button is pre-configured for increased sniping accuracy to help nail critical shots. To add a little bit flash, the integrated lighting can be tweaked to any of 16.8 million colors with constant or pulsing modes.
