

Join Us for a Fiction Reading by

TERESA MESSINEO

Celebrated Author of
The Fire by Night and
*What We May Become

The Fire by Night is about frontline military nurses of WWII, and What We May Become, is set in Tuscany during WWII and deals with themes of betrayal, survival, and rising above our darkest selves. She spent seven years researching The Fire by Night, which currently available in three languages in seven countries, opening in the number one slot on Canada's Best Sellers List. She teaches at Drexel University in Philadelphia.

CThumanities

APRIL 27 4:00-5:30

JOHNSON ROOM, SMITH LIBRARY
BOOK SIGNING AVAILABLE
SPONSORED BY CT HUMANITIES