Profile

I'm Audrey but my friends call me Audge,

I get along with all types of people and will always stop to pet a dog if I see one. I use my experience in writing and designing to produce pride-worthy content that makes happy clients. My personal goal is to use my wide array of skills to make the marketplace more personal.

I like: Creating, designing, writing, editing, and personalizing.
But, I also like animals, traveling, my family, popcorn and adventures.
