

Jacob Lee

Contact: (860) 818-4683 ~ leejac@my.easternct.edu
Home: 4 Summer Lane, Marlborough, CT 06447

OBJECTIVE

Conduct research, gain clinical experience, aid, and become oriented with the field of psychology.

QUALIFICATION SUMMARY

Associates in psychology and work toward a bachelor's with a mental health counseling concentration. Work as a research fellow. Certified social science researcher. Clerical, office assistantship, and classroom experience.

EDUCATION

B.S. in Psychology - Mental Health Counseling

Aug 2020 - current

3.93 Cumulative GPA, Dean's List Fall 2020 & Spring 2021

Eastern Connecticut State University, Willimantic, CT

Courses: Counseling and Clinical Psychology, Statistics, Research Methods, Psychological Tests and Measurements.

Thesis: The Effects of Similarity and Authoritative Parenting on Empathetic Processes

Supervisor: Dr. Kristalyn Salters-Pedneault

A.A. in Psychology

Jan 2019 - May 2020

Manchester Community College, Manchester, CT

3.71 Cumulative GPA, Phi Theta Kappa, Dean's List Fall 2019, President's List Spring 2020

Courses: Industrial-Organizational Psychology, Child Development, Social Psychology, Public Speaking, Creative Writing, Anthropology, Elementary Statistics with Computer Applications, Biology including lab.

General Psychology

Sep 2017 - May 2018

Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY

Dean's List Fall 2017

Courses: Abnormal Psychology, Psychological Statistics (SPSS), Psychoanalysis in Film, Spanish 1 and 2.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant

Jan 2021 – present

Dr. Lyndsey Lanagan-Leitzel, Eastern Connecticut State University

Assist cognitive psychologist and attend weekly lab meetings, act as a confederate in experiments, recruit participants, read and discuss journal articles, help plan experiments, meet with other RAs.

Research Fellow

Summer Research Opportunities Program,

May 2021 – July 2021

University of Illinois at Chicago

Completed interdisciplinary research project, paper, and presentation. Read journal articles and literature reviews, attended discipline specific workshops, graduate seminars, and research team meetings. Interpreted data to draw conclusions. Used Excel, R, and E-Prime. Presented poster on anxiety and working memory in a symposium.

Thesis: Conditions in Which Math Anxiety Decrements Working Memory Capacity

Supervisor: Dr. Jennifer Wiley

Psychology Intern

Jan 2021 – May 2021

Home Instead, Tolland, CT

Learned senior care, studied dementia, provided consultation about cultural competence, analyzed data for human relations, ran statistical tests to find trends in employee longevity, wrote and distributed caregiver satisfaction surveys.