For Immediate Release

East Stroudsburg University PRSSA to Host Guest Speaker

(Issued 3/29/18)

On Tuesday, April 3 the East Stroudsburg University chapter of Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) will host a discussion with Sean Ann Kelly, associate director of communications at Johnson College in Scranton, Pa. Kelly earned a bachelor's degree in communication from ESU in 2013.

Kelly will talk about her time as a student at ESU where she was president of the university's PRSSA chapter and worked in the office of university relations. She will discuss how being involved on campus has aided her throughout her career and skills and experience she has gained as a working professional in her field.

Kelly's presentation will be held in Room 117 of the Hoeffner Science and Technology Center at 6 p.m. and is open to the public at no cost. For more information contact Cem Zeytinoglu, Ph.D., professor of communication and PRSSA adviser, at 570-422-3911 or email czeytinoglu@esu.edu.
