Dear Oanh:

You have been chosen to receive an award at Alvernia University's 2018 Honors Convocation to recognize student and faculty achievements.

Honors Convocation is a joyous occasion at which we gather as an academic community to celebrate the achievements of Alvernia's most successful students and faculty members. It is a significant event in the life of our academic community, and a time to recognize the accomplishments of the students and faculty who are the heart of our university's mission.

While we primarily honor scholastic work, we also recognize those who, in addition to their high academic performance, have excelled in athletics, service-learning or those values important to our mission. In some cases, we recognize a single event deserving of our praise; in other cases, we celebrate an extended period of excellence.

Please join us Sunday, April 15, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. in the Physical Education Center. Families and friends are invited to share in the celebration of your accomplishment. Please RSVP with the number of attendee by March 30, to tracie.koch@alvernia.edu.

Congratulations!

Sincerely,

Samuel M. Bradley, DBA
Chair, Business Department
