

Isabella Tice

703-559-4043

ticeia@miamioh.edu

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/isabella-tice/>

Third-Year Undergraduate Honors Student at Miami University, double-majoring in Geography and Russian, East European, & Eurasian Studies, with a minor in Political Science. I am interested in policy, environmental issues, globalization, cultural relations, and international affairs, and also have extensive experience in customer service and hospitality.

Skills

Business: Cash handling, customer service, point-of-sale, scheduling and coordination

Technical/Software: QGIS, Aloha POS, Macintosh, Windows, Microsoft Office, Typing at 70wpm

Communications: Interpersonal communication, customer service, advanced writing, data analysis

Education

Miami University, Oxford, Ohio – Bachelor of Arts August 2018 – December 2021 (Expected)

B.A. Double Major in Geography and Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies

Minor in Political Science

GPA: 3.87

President's List, Spring 2019, Spring 2020 | Dean's List, Fall 2018

Work Experience

Left Field Tavern, Oxford, OH – Server

February 2019 - February 2020

P.F. Chang's China Bistro, McLean, VA – Server

May 2019 - August 2019

McLean Family Restaurant, McLean, VA – Hostess & Cashier

July 2016 - August 2018

McLean Youth Volleyball, McLean, VA – Asst. Lead Referee

March 2015 - June 2018

Academic Highlights

Karen Dawisha Fellowship, Havighurst Center for Russian and Post-Soviet Studies, Fall 2018

University Honors Program

University Academic Scholars Program

Publications

"Anna Karenina's Parallel Conflict of Faith and Remorse", The New Contemporary Notes from the Havighurst Center, March 2019

Relevant Awards

U.S. Department of State Critical Language Scholarship, Russian Finalist,

Vladimir Russia, 2020 (Suspended due to COVID-19)

President's List (4.0 GPA),

Spring 2019, Spring 2020

Dean's List (3.88 GPA),

Fall 2018

National Russian Essay Contest,

Gold Medal, 2017

National Olympiada of Spoken Russian,

Gold Medal, 2017