

Michelle Cullen

80 Great Brook Road, Milford, NH 03055 • (603) 400-3287 • mlc1107@wildcats.unh.edu

Education

University of New Hampshire, Manchester, NH

Expected May 2021

Bachelor of Science in Biotechnology

Current GPA: 3.80

- Dean's List Spring 2019

Nashua Community College, Nashua, NH

August 2018

Associate of Science in Biological Sciences

GPA 3.62

Additional Qualifications and Training

Ethical and Responsible Conduct of Research and Scholarly Activity,

Sept. & Oct. 2019

University of New Hampshire, Manchester, NH

- Training in the Ethical Use of Human and Vertebrate Subjects in Research
- Training in Authorship and Publication, Collaborative Research, Conflicts of Interest & Commitment, Data Management, Export Controls, Intellectual Property, Laboratory Safety, Mentoring, Misconduct in Scholarly Activity, and Peer Review

Related Coursework

- Ethical Issues in Biology
- Clinical Pathophysiology
- Microbiology (with lab)
- Genetics (with lab)
- Organic Chemistry I (ongoing)
- General Chemistry I & II (with lab)

Laboratory Experience

- Gram, capsule, and endospore staining
- Use of Phenylethyl Alcohol, Columbia CNA with Sheep Blood, Mannitol Salt, and MacConkey Agar
- Use of Phenol Red, Methyl Red, and Voges-Proskauer
- Use of Catalase, Oxidase, Nitrate Reduction, Citrate, Decarboxylase, Phenylalanine Deaminase, Starch Tests
- Recrystallization
- Column Chromatography and Thin Layer Chromatography

Work Experience

McDonald's, Milford, New Hampshire

May 2016 – Present

Crew Trainer

- Teach new team members skills needed to cook and prepare food
- Guide new team members on equipment operation
- Demonstrate hygiene standards to new team members

Service Employee

- Communicate with team members in order to deliver quality services to customers
- Maintain a safe work environment
- Operate kitchen and front lines during service hours