

SARAH THERIAULT

ABOUT ME

In my free time I enjoy participating in the arts such as dancing and drawing. When the snow hits the ground, you can find me in Vermont snowmobiling my heart out. I have traveled the world including places such as but not limited to Jamaica, Haiti, Bermuda, and Alaska.

Girl Scouts of Connecticut Troop 10759 for ten years

National Honor Society for two years completing over 40 hours of community service

National French Honor Society member of one year graduating with a blue stole

EDUCATION

Enfield High School

2016- 2019

High Honors sixteen times with courses in AP Language and Composition, AP Psychology and many honors courses as well. I received the CT Colt Award for French along with an award for my teen leadership abilities.

Eastern Connecticut State University

2019- present

I am a double major in Criminology and Sociology with a minor in Women's Studies

WORK EXPERIENCE

Enfield Public Library, Afternoon Page

September 2017-May 2018

My duties included shelving adult fiction and non-fiction, adult DVD/CD returns, newspapers and magazines, attending to book drop and occasional assistance for the children's side completing the same actions.

Camp Merrie-Wood at Girl Scouts of Connecticut

2011-2019

I have held various positions such as Bus Monitor, Science and Nature program staff, Camp Creations program staff, and Junior Counselor. With this I wrote and developed programs for children 1st- 9th grade to complete. The Camp Creations program concept was designed and executed entirely by myself in attempt to provide children with the typical "Girl Scout" experience.
