Dear Jamie:

Thank you for being a member of the School Nutrition Association (SNA). Now more than ever with the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, your SNA membership helps ensure that our nation's children are well nourished and prepared for success.

As a longtime SNA member, I believe that SNA is your perfect partner to help make a positive impact on school nutrition. SNA is leading the way and working to address new changes and regulations, while also striving to meet your professional needs by providing member benefits like:

- SNA Training Zone - educational webinars, virtual conferences, online training modules and CEU tracking
- Virtual & in person conferences tailored to your needs and to meet USDA Professional Standards requirements
- Strong advocacy efforts on behalf of school nutrition programs
- Nationally recognized certificate and credentialing programs
- A subscription to SNA's award-winning magazine, School Nutrition
- Scholarships through the School Nutrition Foundation

I believe there is no greater legacy than making a difference in the lives of children and SNA is the perfect partner to help you achieve great things. Together we are feeding bodies and fueling minds! Thank you for your support and welcome to SNA.

If you have any questions about your membership, please call SNA's Service Center at 800-877-8822.

Sincerely,

Reginald A. Ross, SNS
SNA President -- 2020-21
