

Haley Gallagher

Anthropology Student

2395 Creekside Drive
Hiawatha, Iowa, 52233
haley.gallagher@snhu.edu
+13193103342

Anthropology student with goals in the archaeology department. Working and learning abroad will strengthen my ability to adapt to new locations during my archaeology journey. Hardworking and being a cancer survivor allow me the skills to succeed with new goals.

Professional Experience

Volunteer Office of the State Archaeologist -- University of Iowa | November 2021 - Present

- Working in archives.
- Labeling and sorting new accessions.
- Learning archaeological curating skills.

Intern/Volunteer The History Center | May 2022 - Present

- Currently being taught curating skills.
- Processing research requests.
- Entering new items into the museum catalog.

Store Manager Claires | October 2020 - March 2021

Handled store duties such as opening and closing the store, ordering new product and promotional materials, and dealing with banking information related to my store location.

Education

Bachelor's in Anthropology Southern New Hampshire University at Manchester, New Hampshire | 2019 - Present

- Currently finishing my bachelor's in anthropology degree. Anticipated conferral date: July 1, 2023.
- I have been on the Dean and President's list several times throughout the degree program.

Key Skills

- Detail Oriented
- Ambitious
- Fast Learner
- Creative

Affiliations

- Member of the Archaeological Institute of America
- Member of the American Anthropological Association