

Kenneth Lee Brown Jr

Mathematic Educator

To make a serious and effective difference in the lives of high schoolers and postgraduates' mathematic, educational experience and learning.

Experience

11 - 2016

ICHTHUS Education Center

Taught Mexican citizens in Chiapas, Mexico English as a Second Language. Taught middle and high school math level classes through Spanish as primary language. Planned and executed math fairs, events, and expository.

2016 - 2020

Imagine Prep Coolidge

Constructed curriculum maps and lessons for 6 – 12th grade math classes. Taught middle school and high school mathematics, including, but not limited to, Algebra 1, Algebra 2, Pre-calculus, and Quantitative Reasoning (Financial literacy).

2020 - Present

JO Combs High School District #44

Construct curriculum maps and lesson plans for 4th-year math classes (seniors). Participate in weekly PLCs and leadership decisions for the math department within the district. Teach Algebra 2, Pre-calculus, and Quantitative Reasoning math class for high schools. Mostly work with seniors everyday of the school year to see them graduate and move on to postgraduate colleges and university and/or trade schools.

Education

2005 - 2009

Associates of Arts

Central Arizona College

2009 – 2011

Bachelor of Arts in Education

Arizona State University

2018 – 2020

Master of Education in Curriculum and Instructions in General Education

Liberty University

2020 – 2022

Bachelor of Mathematics

Southern New Hampshire University

Skills

- Bilingual
- Leadership
- Decision-making
- Filing/typing
- Mathematical
- Computer/Technology Information
- Certificate of Teaching (State of AZ)

Contact

230 W Kennedy Ave.
Coolidge, AZ, 85128
Cell: (520)-560-0246
brownkenneth95@gmail.com