

Darriell T. Butler
3117 River Oak Road
Decatur, GA 30034
(706) 394-8002
darriellbutler@gmail.com

PROFILE

My interest in automotive repair began with my father. He owned several different makes and models of vehicles during my childhood and performed all of the maintenance himself. He once let me help him work on his vehicle and I became fascinated with the advanced technology and wanted to learn more. I chose NASCAR Technical Institute to further my education of vehicle repair because it offered a broad variety of makes and models to learn from and I knew that would help me become a well rounded technician.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Hennessy Ford, Atlanta, GA
Service Technician

From: To:
7/20 Present

- Heavy line repair
- Routine maintenance
- Preventative maintenance
- Glass replacement
- Accessory install
- Test drive with customers to locate customer concern
- Relay diagnostic findings to Service Advisor

Global Imports MINI, Atlanta, GA
Service Technician

From: To:
11/10 7/20

- Heavy line repair
- Routine maintenance
- Preventative maintenance
- Glass replacement

- Accessory install
- Test drive with customers to locate customer concern
- Relay diagnostic findings to Service Advisor

Tropical Ford, Orlando, FL
Pre-Delivery Technician

From: To:
4/10 11/10

- Inspect new vehicles for transport damage and report damage to repair technician
- Accessory install

Orlando MINI, Orlando, FL
Service Technician

From: To:
4/09 4/10

- Heavy line repair
- Routine maintenance
- Inform customers of necessary repairs
- Sell repair work

Precision Tune Auto Care, Mooresville, NC
Lube Technician

From: To:
6/08 1/09

- Perform routine maintenance including oil changes, tire mounting, balancing and rotating
- Maintain shop cleanliness
- Maintain oil filter inventory

EDUCATION

NASCAR Technical Institute (NTI)
Diploma in Automotive Technology
Graduated January 23, 2009

Ford Accelerated Credential Training (FACT) Elective
450 hours of training
Earned 8 Ford STST Credentials
Graduated January 23, 2009

MINI STEP Training Program

Universal Technical Institute and Custom Training Group – Orlando , FL
February 16, 2009 - April 24, 2009

Training included 300 hours in the following subjects:

ST115 MINI Basic

- MINI Introduction Basic Electricity
- MINI Body Body Electronics
- Information Resources Workshop Equipment
- MINI Communication Workshop Applications
- Understanding Diagnostics MINI Service

ST116 MINI Driveline

- MINI Engines Steering and Suspension
- Engine Management MINI Brakes
- Manual Transmissions Traction Control Systems
- Automatic Transmissions Climate Control
- Passive Safety Systems

ST117 R56 Complete Vehicle

- Power Train Power Supply and Bus Systems
- Chassis Dynamics General Vehicle Electronics
- Driver Information Systems Climate Control Systems
- Passive Safety Systems
- Information and Communication Technology

ST118 R55 Complete Vehicle

- Body Introduction System
- Vehicle Components Information
- R55 Electrical Systems
- MINI USB / Audio Interface

ST119 R56 Updates

- MINI Tire Pressure Monitoring
- MINI Real Time Traffic
- MINI HD Radio Technology
- R56 Audio Systems

SIP – Service Information Programs

- WB050 Technical Systems
- IP004 Group Tester One
- IP010 Basic Electronics
- WB401 Basic Bus Systems

EDUCATION

IP026 Diagnosis and Programming Systems

IP024 R52 Convertible Roof

IP030 R56 Complete Vehicle

OTHER TRAINING

Success Track – A 28 hour specific training program that teaches students life skills, professionalism, dealership simulation, team building, communication and life long learning awareness

CERTIFICATIONS

MACS Air Conditioning Certified

Global 2000 Service Writing Certification

Ford FACT Credentials

Certification EPA 609

ALLDATA Certification

AWARDS

NTI Director's Honors List

Perfect Attendance